So what's she to do? Throwing a party for her closest twenty five friends only keeps life exciting for one day after all. Just as the party glow fades she discovers that her dearest most precious possession is missing and there's really only so much Sergeant Coleman Bates can suggest other than letting the police take care of the investigation. One stakeout surreptitious surveillance and you'll never guess what kind possible Fed involvement and a madcap car chase later Miss Julia finds herself closing in on her dearest treasure. Will she get it and what will she risk to do so? Even Miss Julia wonders if this time she's gone too far.
