We Won't Pay! and Other Plays* Dario Fo, 2001 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature In the words of his translator Ron Jenkins The Nobel committee's decision to honor Fo as a master of literature is a historic tribute to the theatre which is still viewed by many as literature's bastard child it is also the first time that the Nobel for the literary arts has been awarded to an actor This courageous and controversial choice indirectly expands the modern definition of literature to include the power of the spoken word Volume One includes We Won't Pay We Won't Pay Elizabeth Archangels Don't Play Pinball About Face Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism , 2001 Diverse Pursuits Javed Malick, 2021-07-07

The five essays in this book reflect many years of the author's sustained academic engagement with dramatic forms and traditions. The opening essay traces the historical trajectory of modern drama in Europe from its bourgeois period through the period of the liberal dissent to the more recent periods of radical alternative. The subsequent essays deal with certain specific examples of that drama in India and the West such as Shakespeare adaptations on the Parsi theatre stage Habib Tanvir and Samuel Beckett. The author places each of these in a historical perspective. This approach constitutes the theoretical underpinning of the book giving cohesion to this collection of diverse essays. Although they were individually published in various journals and books in their earlier versions they have been substantially revived and updated by the author for this volume. This book is co-published with Aakar Books New Delhi. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.
