
Chapter 01 - New World Beginnings 33,000 B.C. - A.D. 1783

I. Introduction

- Receded human history is only one small portion of earth history
- European explorers “stumbled” on the Americas, altering the course of history in Europe, the Americas, Asia, and Africa

II. The Shaping of North America

- Geologic forces and climate change created the distinctive No. American continent

III. Peopling the Americas

- Ancient Americans probably crossed the Bering “land bridge” from Asia between 35,000 and 10,000 years ago (25,000 year window). Receding ice and rising oceans eliminated the bridge.
- These peoples slowly migrated and inhabited both continents, perhaps numbering up to 54 mill. by 1492 A.D. (4 mill. in No Amer)

IV. The Earliest Americans

- Corn/maize was the central agricultural crop that sustained many of the Indian cultures, moving them from nomadic hunters toward settled agricultural societies
- Complex maize culture spread slowly from Mexico north and east into No. Amer, reaching the southeast as late as 1000 A.D. – Creeks, Choctaws, Cherokees – three-sister farming: corn, beans, squash
- Inquis developed their confederacy as late as the 1500s
- Most American societies were small & migratory – women farmed, men hunted – women often held political and cultural authority
- Though Americans did not dominate the land, they still manipulated it to meet their agricultural needs

V. Indirect Discoverers of the New World—

- Despite early settlements in NE NoAmer @ 1000AD, Norse explorers lacked the social organization to maintain them
- European expansion and connections with Africa and Asia were the catalysts for “discovering America”
- Crusades familiarized Europe with exotic and desirable goods that they were now willing to take risks to trade for

Churchill, 2015-03-27 This volume considers the confluence of World History and historical materialism with the following guiding question in mind given developments in the field of historical materialism concerned with the intersection of race gender labour and class why is it that within the field of World History historical materialism has been marginalized precisely as World History orients toward transnational socio cultural phenomenon micro studies or global histories of networks Answering this question requires thinking in an inter related manner about both the development of World History as a discipline and the place of economic determinism in historical materialism This book takes the position that historical materialism as applied to the field of World History needs to be more open to the methodological diversity of the materialist tradition and to refuse narrowly deterministic frameworks that have led to marginalization of materialist cultural analysis in studies of global capitalism At the same time World History needs to be more self critical of the methodological diversity it has welcomed through a largely inclusionary framework that allows the material to be considered separately from cultural social and intellectual dimensions of global processes *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
