The Google Drive Trick Keeps My Files Perfectly Organized

As my business grows, I need a way to keep my files organized and easy to find. I've discovered a simple trick that works perfectly for me.

My secret is using folders.

Instead of having a messy desktop or a cluttered drive, I use folders to group related files together.

For example, I have a folder for "Client X" and another for "Client Y". Inside each folder, I have subfolders for "Contracts", "Invoices", and "Marketing".

This way, I can find everything I need in seconds, no matter how many files I have.

It's a simple trick, but it makes a huge difference in how I manage my files. I highly recommend it to anyone who works with a lot of documents.

Here's how you can do it:

1. Create a main folder for each client or project.

2. Create subfolders for each category of file.

3. Move your files into the appropriate folders.
