Medieval Pets Kathleen Walker-Meikle, 2012 Animals in the middle ages have often been discussed but usually only as a source of food as beasts of burden or as aids for hunters This book takes a completely different angle showing that they were also beloved domestic companions to their human owners It offers a full survey of pets and pet keeping how they were acquired kept fed exercised and displayed it looks at the problems pets could cause and finally how they were mourned It also examines the representation of pets and their owners in art and literature the many charming illustrations offer further evidence for the bonds between humans and their pets then as now Dr Kathleen Walker Meikle is a Wellcome Trust Fellow at the University of York working on animals and medieval medicine
