McDonnell, 1985-09-04 A meditation a day from Thomas Merton This convenient day book is a compendium of inspiring passages from the writings of one of this century's spiritual giants It offers daily challenges for thoughtful meditation intended to stimulate provoke and lead to grace Here are some enduring thoughts found in these pages We cannot be happy if we expect to live all the time at the highest peak of intensity Happiness is not a matter of intensity but of balance and order and rhythm and harmony Every moment and every event of every man's life on earth plants something in his soul Nothing is more suspicious in a man who seems holy than an impatient desire to reform other men Pay as little attention as you can to the faults of other people and none at all to their natural defects and eccentricities The wise heart lives in Christ Wisdom manifests itself and yet is hidden The more it hides the more it is manifest and the more it is manifest the more it is hidden For God is known where he is apprehended as unknown and he is heard when we realize that we do not know the sound of

Paul Wilkes, 1987-10 A Way to God Matthew Fox, 2016-04-01 This unique reflection was prompted by an invitation Matthew Fox received to speak on the centennial of Thomas Merton's birth Fox says that much of the trouble he's gotten into such as being excommunicated in 1993 from the Dominican Order by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict was because of Thomas Merton who sent Fox to Paris to complete a doctoral program in philosophy Fox found that Merton's journals poetry and religious writings revealed a deeply ecumenical philosophy and a contemplative life experience similar to that of Meister Eckhart the fourteenth century mystic theologian who inspired Fox's own creation spirituality It is little surprise to find Fox and Merton to be kindred spirits but the intersections Fox finds with Eckhart are intellectually profound spiritually enlightening and delightfully engaging
