The origins of TikTok can be traced back to the idea of short-form video sharing. ByteDance recognized the potential of creating a platform where users could express themselves in 15-60 second video clips. TikTok was introduced to the international market in September 2017 and merged with the lip-syncing app Musical.ly in 2018, effectively increasing its user base. TikTok's meteoric rise to popularity can be attributed to several factors. Firstly, its interface is user-friendly, making it easy for anyone to create and share content.
