contexts including immigration policy referenced in drawings by Central American children just released from detention centers and electoral politics as contested in kids artwork expressing their anger at Trump's victory. Taking issue with the mainstream tendency to speak on behalf of children Juffer argues that kids have the agency to answer for themselves what does it feel like to be a kid.

Power On Ash Brandin, 2025-08-26 From The Gamer Educator an openminded guide to parenting alongside screens and gaming offering practical solutions to managing your family's screen time. Parents are feeling mounting pressure to minimize screen time but are struggling to do so in our technologically driven world. In contrast to the fear and pressure parents are facing Ash Brandin's Power On offers a calm and reassuring message that keeps the wellbeing of the whole family in mind. Power On powerfully reframes our current dialogue around technology beginning with the morality placed on screen time and leisure and the systemic factors contributing to it. Brandin replaces fear with empowerment giving caregivers tools and strategies for safely incorporating tech into their children's lives guiding children to having a healthy relationship with screens with easy to implement approaches such as The ABCs of the Screentime Management Elements Access Behavior Content The Managing Online Safety S T A R Settings Time Ads App Store Restriction The N I C E Screentime Boundaries Needs Input Consistent Enforceable And several other sets of steps tools and strategies to understand manage and effectively utilize tech in parenting. With today's parenting advice being awash with unhelpful negative judgements on screens and little realistic actionable advice Ash Brandin provides timely realistic direction that will empower readers to find a balance with screen time that works for the entire family.
