Suffering in the World Augustin Kassa, S.M.A.,2019-04-26 The undeniable reality of suffering in the world often leaves humanity perplexed about its source The struggle to make sense of pain usually leaves people wondering what they have done to merit the agony of suffering It is hence not bizarre to hear a person in suffering ask What wrong have I done to be suffering this much Why is God punishing me It is not uncommon to hear some people like Edward Schillebeeckx exempt God from any responsibility in the suffering of humanity Shillebeeckx unequivocally suggests that God is not responsible for the suffering of humanity just as he wasn't responsible for the suffering of his Son more than two thousand years ago In his words No one should ascribe to God what has in fact been done to Jesus by the history of human injustice But how can a tragic event like the death of the Son of God and by extension suffering in the world be laid solely on the shoulders of humanity Doesn't putting the responsibility of pain and suffering in the world on humanity rob God of his all powerful nature To avoid this quandary vis-à-vis the nature of God classical theologians like St Augustine and St Thomas Aquinas proposed the principle of the two evils that is evil suffered and evil done They also maintained that while God may not be responsible for pain and suffering in the world he certainly does permit or allow it for a greater good If God only permits or allows suffering what do we make of Marthe Robin's experience that suggests that the Risen Lord God the Son appeared to her asking her Do you want to be like me And upon the question made her live the suffering and pain and carry the wounds of the Crucified Lord According to her she was the little victim of the Lord *Canadian Books in Print.
