Medieval And Renaissance Spirituality Discovering The Treasures Of The Great Masters:

Medieval and Renaissance Spirituality Maria Jaoudi,2010 Displays the theology and spirituality of the Middle Ages and Renaissance in the three major western religious traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam     The Quest for God William Switala,2020-11-10 The Quest for God is a study of the explosion of interest in newer approaches to spirituality that took place in the west among Christians Jew and Muslims in the twelfth century The book explores the historic internal and external forces that influenced members of the three major faith groups who were looking for new ways to approach their personal relationship with God It contains a detailed explanation of the new attitudes and religious practices that emerged among the three groups during that century This includes special emphasis placed on the mysticism of Christian monks and nuns the Kabbalah of the Jews and the tenets of Sufism in Islam It also paints a clear picture of the role played by the leading figures both male and female who pioneered this effort A unique feature of the book is the linkage of similar imagery biblical references mystical attitudes and actual religious practices utilized by all three faith systems to achieve a newer more mystical approach to spirituality The fundamental development of spiritual approaches initiated by these three faiths laid the foundation for many of the spiritual practices we have today Each of the three faiths is covered in a separate section

Preceding the discussion of the spiritual elements of each is a chapter dealing with the historical setting in which that faith operated A final chapter summarizes the entire work and shows the common characteristics that each group had and links them together     Music, Rhetoric and Christian Hebraism in Early Modern Europe Hyun-Ah Kim,2025-10-01 This book presents the first in depth exploration of the relationship between music rhetoric and Christian Hebraism by re appraising the significance of the first German humanist Johannes Reuchlin s study of Kabbalah and cantillation in the light of Renaissance rhetoric Few studies have investigated how Renaissance humanists learned Hebrew language for the delivery pronuntiatio of the Hebrew Bible as an aural oral tradition Hyun Ah Kim examines the way in which grammarian philosopher Reuchlin reconstructed the modulata recitatio of the Hebrew Bible and its underlying intellectual foundation Consequently Kim demonstrates the hitherto neglected Hebraic aspect of Renaissance rhetoric and its mystical implications that played a vital role in shaping a new theoretical framework for the art of accented singing an art which has changed European musical culture ever since Music Rhetoric and Christian Hebraism in Early Modern Europe elucidates why this nexus is essential for understanding the integral relationship between music language and theological philosophy

Tracing the Trails in the Medieval World Albrecht Classen,2020-10-11 Every human being knows that we are walking through life following trails whether we are aware of them or not Medieval poets from the anonymous composer of Beowulf to Marie de France

Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Strassburg and Guillaume de Lorris to Petrarch and Heinrich Kaufringer predicated their works on the notion of the trail and elaborated on its epistemological function We can grasp here an essential concept that determines much of medieval and early modern European literature and philosophy addressing the direction which all protagonists pursue as powerfully illustrated also by the anonymous poets of Herzog Ernst and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Dante's Divina Commedia in fact proves to be one of the most explicit poetic manifestations of the fundamental idea of the trail but we find strong parallels also in powerful contemporary works such as Guillaume de Deguileville's Le Rerun de la vie humaine and in many mystical tracts

Being and Truth Thomas Langan, 1996

In his earlier volume Tradition and Authenticity in the Search for Ecumenic Wisdom Thomas Langan explored the distinctive kinds of truth handed on by explicit traditions and raised the question of integrating these many diverse truth claims into a responsible meaningful vision of reality. In Being and Truth the author lays a foundation for this concept a theory of knowledge and a theory of being that can find a place for all these differing realities. Although experience is always interpreted in the light of our traditions

Being and Truth shows that this does not preclude real access to persons things and their interrelationships Balancing the realities of subjectivism with the demands of objective form and structure giving both the relatively permanent and the ephemeral their due is at every moment delicate The common sense at the core of each person s natural faith must serve as a guide yet neither of these is a simple notion Langan unabashedly calls on his own wide ranging experience of the lived world to illustrate this dialectic Students and scholars of political philosophy intellectual history and theology will benefit from this rich and insightful text which integrates historicity without undermining the possibility of attaining lasting truth BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1985 Art News Annual ,1966 ARTnews Annual ,1961 International Publications ,1973 Commonweal ,1962 The Athenaeum ,1874 Creative Art Rockwell Kent,1928 Includes book reviews
