Medieval Herbals The Illustrative Traditions British Library Studies In Medieval Culture:

Medieval Herbals Minta Collins,2000-01-01 Collins shows how the principal herbal traditions of Classical descent were replaced by a new observation of nature that itself paved the way for the magnificent paintings of later French and Italian herbals    Medieval English Manuscripts and Literary Forms Jessica Brantley,2022-12-13 In Medieval English Manuscripts and Literary Forms Jessica Brantley offers an innovative introduction to manuscript culture that uses the artifacts themselves to open some of the most vital theoretical questions in medieval literary studies With nearly 200 illustrations many of them in color the book offers both a broad survey of the physical forms and cultural histories of manuscripts and a dozen case studies of particularly significant literary witnesses including the Beowulf manuscript the St Albans Psalter the Ellesmere manuscript of the Canterbury Tales and The Book of Margery Kempe Practical discussions of parchment scripts decoration illustration and bindings mix with consideration of such conceptual categories as ownership authorship language miscellaneity geography writing editing mediation illustration and performance as well as of the status of the literary itself Each case study includes an essay orienting the reader to particularly productive categories of analysis and a selected bibliography for further research Because a high quality digital surrogate exists for each of the selected manuscripts fully and freely available online readers can gain access to the artifacts in their entirety enabling further individual exploration and facilitating the book's classroom use Medieval English Manuscripts and Literary Forms aims to inspire a broad group of readers with some of the excitement of literary manuscript studies in the twenty first century The interpretative frameworks surrounding each object will assist everyone in thinking through the implications of manuscript culture more generally not only for the deeper study of the literature of the Middle Ages but also for a better understanding of book cultures of any era including our own

Making Knowledge in Early Modern Europe Pamela H. Smith,Benjamin Schmidt,2007 Aims to bring together essays that explore how knowledge was obtained and demonstrated in Europe during an intellectually explosive four centuries when standard methods of inquiry took shape across several fields of intellectual pursuit This book looks at production and consumption of knowledge as a social process within different communities    Arab Painting Anna Contadini,2007 Arab painting is treated here as a significant artistic corpus in its own right Rejecting the traditional emphasis on individual paintings the distinguished contributors to this volume stress the integration of text and image as a more productive theoretical framework    The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 1, Ancient Science Alexander Jones,Liba Taub,2018-12-13 This volume in the highly respected Cambridge History of Science series is devoted to the history of science medicine and mathematics of the Old World in antiquity Organized by topic and culture its essays by distinguished scholars offer the most comprehensive and up to date history of ancient science currently available Together they reveal the diversity of goals contexts and accomplishments in the study of nature in Mesopotamia Egypt Greece Rome China and India Intended to provide a balanced and inclusive treatment of the ancient world contributors consider scientific medical and mathematical learning in the cultures associated with the ancient world      The Art of Natural History Therese O'Malley,Amy R. W. Meyers,2010 The emergence of natural science in the early modern period has been linked to the history of books but this relationship is generally discussed in terms of texts In contrast the eleven essays in this volume consider the role of images and their relationship to text in the production and transmission of knowledge P 4 of cover      Studies and Texts ,1955

The History of Natural History Gavin D. R. Bridson,2008 With over 5 300 added references this revised and updated edition is an essential source of information for scientists researchers and enthusiastic amateurs The History of Natural History is one of those key works that should be kept in easy reach of anyone interested in the study of natural history in all its branches      Bulletin of the History of Medicine American association for the history of medicine,Institute of the history of medicine (Baltimore, Md.),2003      Mental Health, Spirituality, and Religion in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2014-07-28 This volume continues the critical exploration of fundamental issues in the medieval and early modern world here concerning mental health spirituality melancholy mystical visions medicine and well being The contributors who originally had presented their research at a symposium at The University of Arizona in May 2013 explore a wide range of approaches and materials pertinent to these issues taking us from the early Middle Ages to the eighteenth century capping the volume with some reflections on the relevance of religion today Lapidary sciences matter here as much as medical psychological research combined with literary and art historical approaches The premodern understanding of mental health is not taken as a miraculous panacea for modern problems but the contributors suggest that medieval and early modern writers scientists and artists commanded a considerable amount of arcane sometimes curious and speculative knowledge that promises to be of value and relevance even for us today once again Modern palliative medicine finds for instance intriguing parallels in medieval word magic and the mystical perspectives encapsulated highly productive alternative perceptions of the macrocosm and microcosm that promise to be insightful and important also for the post modern world      American Book Publishing Record ,2006      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006      The Book Collector ,2000      International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2002      Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2003      Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02      Pagans and Christians Lauren Adams Gilmour,2007 37 essays on the christianisation of the Roman world and Christian culture up to the later Middle Ages As might be expected there is a particular emphasis on Roman Britain and on Christian art      Canadian Books in Print ,2001      Deutsches Archiv für Erforschung des Mittelalters ,2002      Splendour, Gravity & Emotion Anne S.
