Meeting Faith Faith Adiele, 2005-07 Northern Thailand's first black Buddhist nun traces her journey from a Harvard scholarship student in the world of pop culture to her ordination into a world marked by natural violence and eastern philosophy discussing her resistance to the Buddhist worldview and her struggles to overcome difficult personal obstacles Reprint 10 000 first printing Meeting Faith Faith Elisabet Adiele, 2002 Meeting Faith: The Forest Journals of a Black Buddhist Nun Faith Adielé, 2004 Writing as Enlightenment John Whalen-Bridge, Gary Storhoff, 2011-08-01 This timely book explores how Buddhist inflected thought has enriched contemporary American literature Continuing the work begun in The Emergence of Buddhist American Literature editors John Whalen Bridge and Gary Storhoff and the volume's contributors turn to the most recent developments revealing how mid 1970s through early twenty first century literature has employed Buddhist texts principles and genres Just as Buddhism underwent indigenization when it moved from India to Tibet to China and to Japan it is now undergoing that process in the United States While some will find literary creativity in this process others lament a loss of authenticity The book begins with a look at the American reception of Zen and at the approaches to Dharma developed by African Americans The work of consciously Buddhist and Buddhist influenced writers such as Don DeLillo Gary Snyder and Jackson Mac Low is analyzed and a final section of the volume contains interviews and discussions with contemporary Buddhist writers These include an interview with Gary Snyder a discussion with Maxine Hong Kingston and Charles Johnson and discussions of competing American and Asian values at the Beat and Buddhist inspired writing program at Naropa University with poets Joanne Kyger Reed Byrd Keith Abbott Andrew Schelling and Elizabeth Robinson

to scholars and practitioners alike Hsiao Lan Hu author of This Worldly Nibbana: A Buddhist Feminist Social Ethic for Peacemaking in the Global Community      The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies Carol Anderson, Thomas Cattoi, 2022-09-30 Buddhist Christian dialogue has a long and complex history that stretches back to the first centuries of the common era. Comprising 42 international and disciplinarily diverse chapters, this volume begins by setting up a framework for examining the nature of Buddhist Christian interreligious dialogue, discussing how research in this area has been conducted in the past and considering future theoretical directions. Subsequent chapters delve into important episodes in the history of Buddhist Christian dialogue: contemporary conversations such as monastic interreligious dialogue, multiple religious identity and dual religious practice, and Buddhist Christian cooperation in social justice, social engagement, pastoral care, and interreligious education settings. The volume closes with a section devoted to comparative and constructive explorations of different speculative themes that range from the theological to the philosophical or experiential. This handbook explores how the study of Buddhist Christian relations has been and ought to be done. The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies is essential reading for researchers and students interested in Buddhist Christian studies, Asian religions, and interreligious relationships. Curtis, 2015-03-04 Examining novelists, bloggers, and other creators of new media, this study focuses on autobiography by American black women since 1980, including Audre Lorde, Jill Nelson, and Janet Jackson. Imagining Siam Caron Eastgate Dann, 2008 Thailand has been systematically transformed into a classic neocolonial object of Western desire: an easily penetrated erotic zone that caters to the appetites of Western interlopers. In the first comprehensive critical study of Western literature about Thailand, Imagining Siam provides a thorough analysis using Edward Said's concepts of English language travelogues and travel literature. It offers a broad view covering literary attempts to describe Siam in the 13th century through the formative phase of Western engagement in the 16th century and the various competing European imperialisms in the 19th century to today's era of mass tourism and the global reach of economically and culturally powerful First World populations. Imagining Siam will appeal to those interested in Thailand, critiques of travel writing, and the Anna Leonowens legacy.
