Meeting Other Believers The Risks And Rewards Of Interreligious Dialogue:

Meeting Other Believers Francis A. Arinze, 1997 On interreligious dialogue    Meeting Other Believers Francis A. Arinze, 1997    Our Bishops, Heroes for the New Evangelization Justin McClain, 2017-06-05 These are challenging times when it comes to the need for lay Catholics to understand the Church's position on any number of doctrinal issues. Likewise we need bishops who will lead warmly and amicably yet likewise accurately and as dutiful spiritual fathers. The goal of this book is to invite the Catholic laity along with anyone of good will to become steadily familiar with the teachings of the Church as transmitted by the writings of modern Catholic bishops. There is a particular focus on the bishops of the English speaking world as well as on the writings of the bishops over the course of the last two centuries. If you would like to grow in your Catholic faith this book explains how the bishops have patiently and pastorally led the faithful to walk ever closer to the ultimate Good Shepherd the Lord Jesus Christ    False Dawn Lee Penn, 2004 The interfaith movement which began with the 1893 World's Parliament of Religions in Chicago has grown worldwide. Although this movement has been largely unknown to the public it now provides a spiritual face for globalization the economic and political forces leading us all from nationalism to One World. The most ambitious organization in today's interfaith movement is the United Religions Initiative (URI) founded by William Swing the Episcopal Bishop of California. Investigative reporter Lee Penn a Catholic ex Marxist exhaustively documents the history and beliefs of the URI and its New Age and globalist allies the vested interests that support these movements and the direction they appear to be taking. The interfaith movement is no longer merely the province of a coterie of little heeded religious idealists with grandiose visions. The URI's proponents have ranged from billionaire George Soros to President George W Bush from the far right Rev Sun Myung Moon to the liberal Catholic theologian Hans Kung and from the Dalai Lama to the leaders of government approved Protestant churches in the People's Republic of China. The interfaith movement including the URI is being promoted by globalist and New Age reformers who favor erosion of national sovereignty marginalization of traditional religions establishment of global governance and creation of a new Earth based global spirituality in effect a one world religion. Therefore the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev the last leader of the Soviet Union. In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times French metaphysician René Guénon spoke of the anti tradition the forces of materialism and secular humanism finally giving way to the counter tradition the satanic inversion of true spirituality leading to the regime of Antichrist. The anti tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities after which the counter tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place. Since Guénon's time as is well known anti traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide. It is less well known that counter traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before. The counter tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left. False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development In so doing the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock There is much to be seen and learned here all of it unsettling disquieting occasionally downright scary William Murchison Radford Distinguished Professor Baylor University When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods something has gone horribly wrong In False Dawn Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative This book sounds a clear warning Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions

Douglas LeBlanc Editor GetReligion.org      Education for Interreligious Dialogue Patrick Chinedu Mbarah,2020-09-29

This publication representing substantively the doctoral dissertation of Rev Fr Patrick Chinedu Mbarah examines the implication of education for interreligious dialogue He believes that education has a paramount role to play in advancing interreligious dialogue Focusing on Archdiocese of Owerri Nigeria he evaluates the situation at hand in the light of the relationship existing among the different religions Islam Christianity African Traditional Religion and some of the New Religious Movements He insists that education will help in the promotion and progress of dialogue among the different religion frontiers The book argues that education for interreligious dialogue is not optional instead it is a necessity and an obligation in the Nigerian context The book highlights the importance of catholic education and how the various channels existing in the archdiocese of Owerri could be used as veritable means of formation of the people to understand the teaching of the Church on interreligious relations with people of other faith traditions Furthermore the book presents a concrete proposal of an Interreligious Dialogue Directory for the application of principles and norms for the education of people for a mutual coexistence with followers of other religious traditions in Owerri Archdiocese Nigeria It is meant for the education of people at different levels pastoral agents catechists priests religious and lay faithful It also addresses schools especially Secondary and Tertiary institutions

Things ,2005      The Writers Directory ,2013      Educating for Democracy Alan M. Olson,David M. Steiner,Irina S.

Tuuli,2004-08-04 The central conflicts of the world today are closely related to cultural traditional and religious differences between nations As we move to a globalized world these differences often become magnified entrenched and the cause of bloody conflict Growing out of a conference of distinguished scholars from the MiddleEast Europe and the United States this volume is a singular contribution to mutual understanding and cooperative efforts on behalf of peace The term paideia drawn from Greek philosophy has to do with responsible education for citizenship as a necessary precondition for effective democracy The problems discussed here are crucial but not simple How can we find shared ethical principles on which to build international consensus How can religious tolerance make inroads in societies accustomed to restrictive fundamentalism What might bring about de dogmatization of education in the Middle East as a necessary condition for free and rational inquiry and the broader vistas required by democracy All of these issues highlight the underlying question What is education really for Finally the volume confronts the promises and perils of economic globalization Noting that one third of the world's population lives in abject poverty business has become a battlefield where ethics and trust are clearly at stake

New Covenant ,1998 Building Bridges Helmut S. Ruppert,2004 Cardinal Arinze shares in this book extremely timely and helpful for fostering greater interreligious understanding today and for guiding religious persons in their common effort toward building peace and justice Inter-religious Explorations Leonardo N. Mercado,2004 Interfaith Dialogue

Edmund Kee-Fook Chia,2016-09-15 This book addresses issues central to today's Catholic Church focusing on the relationship between various religions in different contexts and regions across the world The diverse array of contributors present an inclusively interfaith enterprise investigating a wide range of encounters and perspectives The essays include approaches from the Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Bah traditions in a variety of geographic contexts Contributors reflect on Muslims in the West Christian Buddhist social activism and on Chinese Indian and Japanese religions The volume also explores the experiences of communities that are often marginalized and overlooked such as the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders of Australia and the Karen tribal peoples of Thailand Contributors examine the works of the Focolare Glen and Rissh K sei kai movements and integrate the vision of Raimon Panikkar and Ken Wilber Chapters incorporate discussions of dialogue documents such as Nostra Aetate and Dabru Emet and methodologies such as Receptive Ecumenism Comparative Theology and Scriptural Reasoning Among other goals the book seeks to offer glimpses into interfaith dialogues across the world and examine what Christians can learn from other religions and global contexts Not Without My Neighbour S.

Wesley Ariarajah,1999 Meeting people of other faiths is an everyday experience not only for minority Christian communities in Asia and the Middle East but increasingly for Christians elsewhere Yet although interfaith dialogue has established itself as a key concern for the churches and the ecumenical movement it continues to raise spiritual social political practical and theological concerns in many quarters The insights in this book draw on the author's wide range of personal experiences as a child student and Methodist pastor in Sri Lanka as a participant in the controversial discussion of interfaith dialogue at the World Council of Churches fifth assembly Nairobi 1975 as a student of Hinduism and especially as a longtime staff member and director of the WCC's dialogue programme Weaving together accounts from daily life ecumenical texts and discussions and theological reflection this book offers a clear and challenging introduction to key issues that arise again and again when Christians and churches enter into conversation with their neighbours of other faiths among them interfaith prayer interfaith marriage religion and conflict and dialogue and mission Christians and Jews in Dialogue Dorothy C. Bass,Mary C. Boys,Sara S. Lee,2014-05-07 Discover the Power of Dialogue to Heal Religious Division How can members of different faith traditions approach each other with openness and respect How can they confront the painful conflicts in their history and overcome theological misconceptions For more than twenty years Professors Mary C Boys and Sara S Lee have explored ways that Catholics and Jews might overcome mistrust and misunderstandings in order to promote commitment to religious pluralism At its best interreligious dialogue entails not simply learning about the other from the safety of one's own faith community but rather engaging in specific learning activities with members of the other faith learning in the presence of the other Drawing upon examples from their own experience Boys and Lee lay out a framework for engaging the religious other in depth With vision and insight they discuss ways of fostering relationships among participants and with key texts beliefs and practices of the other's tradition In this groundbreaking resource they offer a guide for members of any faith tradition who want to move beyond the rhetoric of interfaith dialogue and into the demanding yet richly rewarding work of developing new understandings of the religious other and of one's own tradition

Unity in Diversity Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Amal Khoury,Emily Welty,2007

The authors discuss the intricate relationships between interfaith activities and religious identity nationalism violence and peacemaking in four very different settings Israel Palestine Lebanon Egypt and Jordan They interview the whole cross section of local Interfaith Dialogue workers not only clerics and dialoguing professionals but also laypersons who are often more eloquent than any scholar at expressing the realities hopes and frustrations of Interfaith Dialogue within their home countries They take on the perennial dilemma faced by Interfaith Dialogue proponents avoid politics and risk irrelevance or take up the political questions and risk politicizing the dialogue with all the disruptive effects this implies Above all this important book demonstrates the desire for interfaith dialogue in these polarized societies and the extent to which against strong odds religious communities are connecting with each other Back cover

Dialogue with the Other David Tracy,1990 Dialogue with the Other expresses David Tracy's ongoing interest in the other and The Other His reflections enter into dialogue with figures as diverse as Meister Eckhart and William James and traditions as different as those of Buddhism Christianity and Judaism David Tracy is Distinguished Service Professor at the University of Chicago He is Professor of Theology at the Chicago Divinity School and Professor in the Committee on the Analysis of Ideas and Methods Among his better known are Blessed Rage for Order 1975 The Analogical Imagination 1981 and Plurality and Ambiguity 1987

Christians & Jews in Dialogue Mary C. Boys,Sara S. offer a guide for members of any faith tradition who want to move beyond the rhetoric of interfaith dialogue and into the demanding yet richly rewarding work of developing new understandings of the religious other and of one's own tradition

Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age. While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue. The book centers upon inter faith issues. It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths. The volume's contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions. They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century.
