Personal Styles In Early Cycladic Sculpture Wisconsin Studies In Classics:

Personal Styles in Early Cycladic Sculpture Pat Getz-Gentle, 2001-11-26 Getz Gentle an independent scholar has seen many of the examples that exist in the course of her career studying Cycladic sculpture She presents in this volume a catalog of Cycladic sculpture which she has organized into stylistic categories based on formal analysis The methods she used to arrive at her conclusions as well as her theory of how the sculptures were produced are discussed at length Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Personal Styles in Early Cycladic Sculpture Pat Getz-Gentle, Jack de Vries, 2001 Annotation Personal Styles in Early Cycladic Sculpture represents the culmination of thirty five years of study Pat Getz Gentle offers here much new material and many fresh insights into a tradition rooted in the Neolithic period that spanned most of the third millennium B C She begins with a review of this tradition placing particular emphasis on the stages leading to the reclining figure with folded arms that is the unique and quintessential icon of the early Bronze Age culture at the center of the Aegean She then focuses on the styles of fifteen sculptors several of whom are identified and discussed for the first time in this volume By introducing little known pieces attributable to these sculptors she illuminates various phases of their artistic development BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Iconography of Sculptured Statue Bases in the Archaic and Classical Periods Angeliki Kosmopoulou, 2002 Angeliki Kosmopoulou demonstrates that relief bases present distinct consistent iconographic and technical characteristics that differentiate them from related monuments BOOK JACKET

Discs of Splendor Alexandra Ann Carpino, 2003 The Etruscans whose culture flourished in Italy from the late eighth century B C E to the first century B C E produced some of the most sumptuous bronze and silver mirrors found in the ancient Mediterranean Mirrors with relief decorations on their reverse sides are extremely rare and uniquely Etruscan Their designs inform us about artistic styles and supplement our understanding of Etruscan culture and taste The subjects illustrated on the mirrors give important insights into Etruscan mythology beliefs and cultural values filling the vacuum left by the loss of most of their literary record

Hellenistic Sculpture Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway, 1990 This is the final volume in Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway's series of books covering the entire range of Greek sculpture from its inception to its virtual end as it merged into the production of the Roman Imperial world Volume III discusses sculptural works both architectural and free standing from approximately 100 B C to the Battle of Actium 31 B C which removed from power the last Hellenistic ruler Although some monuments may belong to the years just before or just after this timespan Ridgway's aim is to concentrate on works plausibly dated to the first century B C even those with highly controversial chronologies Famous sculptures the Laocoon the epic groups from the Sperlonga cave the Belvedere Torso the bronze Boxer in the Terme Museum and many others are discussed together with less well known pieces Ridgway gives special emphasis to the finds from two shipwrecks the Mahdia and the Antikythera wrecks that provide a reasonable terminus ante quem and argues that many of the stylistic trends and decorative objects usually considered typically Roman instead have their roots in the Greek world This last Hellenistic phase is perhaps the most interesting of the three because it documents to a great extent the transformation of the products of one culture into those of another with different interests and priorities Far from being an unimaginative inferior output driven by commercial considerations the statuary of the first century B C is vibrant and inventive drawing from many sources in a stylistic eclecticism Modes of Viewing in Hellenistic Poetry Graham Zanker,2004 Taking a fresh look at the poetry and visual art of the Hellenistic age from the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B C to the Romans defeat of Cleopatra in 30 B C Graham Zanker makes enlightening discoveries about the assumptions and conventions of Hellenistic poets and artists and their audiences Zanker s exciting new interpretations closely compare poetry and art for the light each sheds on the other He finds for example an exuberant expansion of subject matter in the Hellenistic periods in both literature and art as styles and iconographic traditions reserved for grander concepts in earlier eras were applied to themes motifs and subjects that were emphatically less grand Early Cycladic Sculpture in Context Marisa Marthari,Colin Renfrew,Michael J. Boyd,2017-01-04 The sculpture of the early bronze age Cyclades has been systematically studied since the time of Christos Tsountas at the end of the 19th century But that study has been hampered by the circumstance that so many of the subsequent finds come from unauthorized excavations where the archaeological context was irretrievably lost Largely for that reason there are still many problems surrounding the chronology the function and the meaning of Early Cycladic sculpture This lavishly illustrated and comprehensive reassessment sets out to rectify that situation by publishing finds which have been recovered in controlled excavations in recent years as well as earlier finds for which better documentation can now be provided Using the material from recent excavation projects and drawing on the papers presented at a symposium held in Athens in 2014 it is possible now to undertake a fresh overview of the entire body of sculpture from the Cycladic islands which has been found in secure archaeological contexts Beginning with early examples from Neolithic settlement sites and extending into a consideration of material found in later contexts the 35 chapters are divided into sections which examine sculpture from settlements cemeteries and the sanctuary at Kavos concluding with a discussion of material techniques and aspects of manufacture ARCHAEOLOGY - Publication of the Archaeological Institute of America. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Horizon Neil Brodie, 2008 The Cycladic Islands of Greece played a central role in Aegean prehistory and many new discoveries have been made in recent years at sites ranging in date from the Mesolithic period to the end of the Bronze Age In the well illustrated chapters of this book based on the recent conference held at the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research in Cambridge international scholars including leading Greek archaeologists offer new information about recent developments many arising from hitherto unpublished excavations The book contains novel theoretical insights into the workings of culture process in the prehistoric cultures of the islands It will be an indispensable resource for students and scholars interested in the prehistory of the Aegean and in the contributions made to its development by the prehistoric inhabitants of the Cyclades L'Antiquité classique Joseph Bidez, Albert Joseph Carnoy, Franz Cumont, 2007 Includes section Comptes rendus Gnomon, 2002 Personal Styles in Greek Sculpture Όλγα Παλαγιά, J. J. Pollitt, Department of Classics, Yale University Staff, 1998 The aim of this 1996 book is to identify and evaluate the distinctive styles of five important ancient Greek sculptors whose work is discussed by ancient writers Its underlying assumption is that the history of Greek sculpture was not simply governed by impersonal evolutionary forces but that like the sculpture of later periods it was shaped by the intuitions predilections and innovations of particular individuals The international group of authors whose essays appear here recognize that the problematical and fragmentary nature of the surviving evidence makes their task a difficult one Nevertheless by drawing upon the evidence of recent archaeological finds and by re evaluating both the ancient literary sources and earlier scholarly literature they expand our understanding of the role of personal styles in ancient Greek art Early Cycladic Sculpture Pat Getz-Preziosi, 1995-01-12 First published in 1985 this ground breaking book surveys the development of Cycladic sculpture produced by unidentified artists who worked in the Aegean islands forty five hundred years ago Illustrated with numerous objects from American collections with particular emphasis on some two dozen pieces in the Getty Museum this volume surveys the typological development of Early Cycladic sculpture and identifies where possible the work of individual sculptors Newly revised and updated this book is a concise introduction to the field EARLY CYCLADIC SCULPTURE, 1985
