Responsive Performance Management

Works Parth Sarathi, Performance management is an evolving field of management and merely making it excellence driven is not adequate in the emerging VUCA environment No doubt Agile Performance management is the need of the day but many organizations may not find it feasible to go for it all of a sudden There are a number of conceptual and process requirements which an organization can prepare in a planned manner This book devotes its efforts on enhancing readiness to go for a truly Agile Performance management Therefore a viable option is to go for a Responsive PMS The core of responsiveness appears to be the ability to sense the implicit and explicit needs of others and responding quickly and positively for satisfaction of needs The mechanisms or components of Responsive Performance management may not be entirely new perhaps these are the familiar ones but the meaning aim emphasis and treatment may be different Seven components have been identified Performance planning Performance enabling Performance appraisal Performance Feedback counseling and identification of training development needs Rewards reinforcement and Potential appraisal In addition a number of related concepts and practices have been described This book giving examples of real life working of PMS has brought immense clarity on the issues involved The performance improvement interventions have been dealt in depth The multidisciplinary background of the author has brought a formidable blend of theory and practice on one hand and content and process on the other Strong analytical skills of Industrial engineering and systems deep insights in to Human process skills within a strong framework of Human Resource management Human resource development and Organizational development have enabled a unique treatment to traditional and emerging aspects of Performance management In addition to the 12 Chapters eight Appendices several figures formats and tables are expected to facilitate easy understanding and encouragement to experiment with evolving appropriate and novel interventions Memorandum of Understanding ...
