Perspectives on the Rule of St. Benedict Aquinata Böckmann,2005 A commentary on parts of the Rule of St Benedict prologue and chapters 53 58 72 and 73 Provided by publisher    Reclaiming Humility Jane Foulcher,2015-03-31 Does humility have a place in contemporary life Were Enlightenment thinkers wrong to reject humility as a monkish virtue Hume arising from a slave morality Nietzsche Australian theologian Jane Foulcher recovers the counter cultural reading of humility that marked early Christianity and examines its trajectory at key junctures in the development of Western monasticism Humility emerges not as a moral virtue achieved by human effort but as a way opened by grace as a divine climate Christian de Cherg that we are invited to inhabit From fourth century Egypt to twentieth century Algeria via Saint Benedict and Saint Bernard of Clairvaux Dr Foulcher s compelling analysis of theology and practice challenges the church to reclaim Christian humility as essential to its life and witness today    Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator,2017-12-14

Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning    Welcoming the Word in Year A Verna Holyhead,2007 2008 Catholic Press Association Award Winner In this volume of weekly reflections on the Sunday Lectionary for Year A Verna Holyhead calls us not only to hear the Word of God but to act on that Word Her reflections shed light on what it means to be human to be people of God in today s world Using Scripture poetry and history these meditations move readers beyond a static understanding of the weekly readings to an appreciation for how the readings impact and reflect their lives Drawing on the Rule of St Benedict and the Benedictine tradition the reflections provide another way by which believers may contemplate the Liturgy of the Word As a sourcebook for pastoral ministry or a reference for personal or communal reflection this volume will assist believers who desire to engage more deeply with the Word Verna Holyhead SGS is an Australian Sister of the Good Samaritan of the Order of St Benedict She leads retreats

Smither,2021-01-05

God is a missionary God God is also hospitable in his nature He makes his enemies friends and invites them to intimate communion The mission of God in Scripture often occurs through hospitality when God's people encounter the not yet people of God at table or in hospitable environments and invite them to believe This motif of mission as hospitality plays out through the Old and New Testament Scriptures and through the Eucharist It can also be observed through the witness of monks and contemporary missionaries who embraced a hospitable approach to mission For the church to participate in God's mission today a vision to win conquer or change the world should be exchanged for a conviction to welcome the stranger and make room for others while proclaiming the gospel that is to imitate the hospitable God in mission The American Benedictine Review ,2020
