Nurturing Children's Spirituality Holly Allen, 2008-03-01 Children's spiritual development is currently a hot topic in Christian circles as well as in other fields and disciplines such as educational psychology medicine developmental psychology education and sociology. The key question for Christian scholars and educators is How do Christian beliefs and practices uniquely interrelate with children's spirituality. In 2003 and again in 2006 a national conference entitled Children's Spirituality Conference Christian Perspectives examined children's spirituality from a distinctly Christian standpoint. This book is a collection of the best materials from the 2006 conference. The first half of the book addresses definitional historical and theological concerns related to spiritual development in children. The second half explores best practices for fostering spiritual growth among our children in our homes families churches Christian schools and among special populations of children from a wide spectrum of Christian scholars and practitioners. The volume closes with John Westerhoff's moving keynote address and Catherine Stonehouse and Scottie May's eloquent culminating plenary address. Nurturing Children's Spirituality provides a rich cross section of the current research and writing by Christian scholars on children's spirituality. Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children La Verne Tolbert, 2014-05-19 Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children A Holistic Approach answers questions about the most effective ways to help children, pre-teens and teens develop spiritually. This collection of research gleaned from presentations during the Fourth Triennial Children's Spirituality Conference at Concordia University in 2012 is divided into four major sections: 1. theological and historical foundations; 2. engaging parents and congregations; 3. engaging methodologies; and 4. exploring children at risk, child pornography, social justice, intercultural diversity and abstinence education. Researchers acknowledge that the home is the foundation for Christian nurture. In Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children, both scholars and ministry leaders come together with parents to promote a holistic environment where children are encouraged to love, respect and obey God. From birth to high school, children's voices resonate throughout these studies as they are invited to share their reflections and experiences. Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children is a lively, easy to read collection that reflects a broad range of faith traditions and is ideal for all those who are committed to the spiritual development of children.

obvious Jewish Talmudic imprint Burggraeve was interested as to how the concept of responsibility can be connected to a biblically inspired ethic In which way can the Levinasian view on responsibility enhance a Christian anthropology and in particular that one articulated by Louvain personalism and in its turn inspired by a Christian anthropology so that it benefits from uniquely Christian accents In this Festschrift for Roger Burggraeve authors explore the theme of Responsibility God and Society in order to answer two questions What does Levinas ethic of responsibility have to offer Christian theology And vice versa what can Christian theology offer to contemporary ethical thought on personal relational and societal responsibility
