

RECYCLING

November 2020

Dear Residents of Southside Place,

We are happy to be sending you the first communication from the newly re-formed Recycling Committee. Comprised of fellow residents, our mission is to help the City refine our Recycling program and ensure that it is running efficiently and effectively.

Thank you for your interest and participation in our Recycling program. Estimated participation is a whopping 95%, something we can all be proud of! With such great participation, it is important that we adhere to the regulations for a good, clean recycling stream. To that end, we are providing a new flyer that outlines current DO's and DON'T's. Please help everyone in your household become familiar with this information.

We are also including a FAQ section that will be an ongoing feature in the City newsletter that goes out with the water bill. We will also use the space to inform you about any changes to our program, trends in the recycling industry, and ways residents can ensure that our recyclables are clean and free of materials that cannot be accepted. This information will also be available on the City's website.

Many of you may have seen press dealing with the fact that much of the recycling being collected in the US is, or was, being sent overseas. Some of those opportunities are no longer available, resulting in many recyclables going to landfills. However, our vendor Waste Management has assured us that our recyclables are NOT being sent out of the country, which is good news.

If you have recycling questions or if you are interested in joining the recycling committee, please send an email to Steve Kenney, Public Works Director, at <mailto:publicworks@southside-place.org>.

Sincerely yours,

The Southside Place Recycling Committee

Persuasive Recycling Letter:

The Handbook of Personalized Persuasion Richard E. Petty, Andrew Luttrell, Jacob D. Teeny, 2025-02-19 The Handbook of Personalized Persuasion provides the most comprehensive and state of the art review of the expansive literature on personalized messaging in persuasion. The book describes what features of people, messages, and contexts are most effective for personally tailored communication and how this knowledge can be leveraged to improve the influence of messaging in any domain. It also addresses when such personalization can be counterproductive or backfire. Bringing together some of the foremost experts in the area, the book consists of a diverse global and interdisciplinary set of scholars who tackle the theory and application of personalized persuasion. Organized into two sections, the first part of this book addresses the many aspects of people to which messages can be targeted such as the basis of a person's attitude or the person's goals or identity. The second part of this book tackles the many important areas of application in which personalized messaging has been examined such as political and health messaging, consumer advertising, and even online misinformation. This handbook is essential reading for researchers and students in social psychology and across the behavioral and social sciences while also offering practitioners in marketing, government, and beyond the most cutting edge insights into how to maximize the influence of personalized persuasion.

Letter Writing, Grades 1-2 (Meeting Writing Standards Series) Jennifer Overend Prior, 2000-10 Contains lessons that guide children through the writing of numerous types of letters: friendly and business letters, request letters, letters of concern, invitations, thank you notes, greeting cards, e-mail messages, and postcards.

Writing for Understanding Donovan R. Walling, 2009-08-25 While we have all heard of writing across the curriculum areas, Walling gives us an understanding of what this really means and provides examples that any teacher can modify to expand lessons to a more meaningful level, thus enhancing both writing and critical thinking skills in students. Mark S. Strauss, Principal, Virginia Schuman Young Montessori Magnet Elementary School, Ft Lauderdale, FL. Walling demonstrates through student writing samples and classroom dialogues how all content teachers can use various writing modes to enrich students' content knowledge to the level of innovation and greater clarity. Carol Conway Gerhardt, President, Catholic Schools Education Alliance of the Bay Area Inc. Develop effective writing assignments to boost student achievement in the content areas. You don't have to be a writing instructor or English teacher to use writing in the classroom. Writing for Understanding focuses on using writing as an essential instructional tool to deepen and expand student understanding in the content areas. Written specifically for non-language arts teachers, this book debunks myths about using writing in the classroom and offers practical approaches for the upper elementary grades through high school. Writing activates higher level thinking skills and engages students in concepts and content. Through sample writing prompts and classroom dialogues, Donovan R. Walling shows you how to create writing lessons that guide students in using narrative, descriptive, expository, persuasive, and argumentative writing. Are adaptable to various subjects and disciplines. Require
