Perspectives Berlin 2016 Schoen Andreas:

Anti-Europeanism, Populism and European Integration in a Historical Perspective Andrea Guiso, Daniele Pasquinucci, 2024-06-14

This book explores the long term origins of populist Euroscepticism. Taking a historical perspective to move beyond explaining present day expressions of opposition to the European Union in isolation this book reveals the historical sedimentation of the several ways and forms taken over decades by opposition towards European integration. As such this approach with contributions from across disciplines explains not just the past of Euroscepticism but also its current nature and future prospects. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European History, European Politics and Studies and more broadly to Political Science, International Relations, the Humanities and Social Sciences.

Dialogues between Media

Paul Ferstl, 2021-01-18 Comparative Literature is changing fast with methodologies, topics and research interests emerging and remerging. The fifth volume of ICLA 2016 proceedings, Dialogues between Media, focuses on the current interest in inter arts studies as well as papers on comics studies, further testimony to the fact that comics have truly arrived in mainstream academic discourse. Adaptation is a key term for the studies presented in this volume: various articles discuss the adaptation of literary source texts in different target media: cinematic versions, comics adaptations, TV series, theatre and opera. Essays on the interplay of media beyond adaptation further show many of the strands that are woven into dialogues between media and thus the expanding range of comparative literature.

Border Transgression

Eva Youkhana, 2017-10-02 This volume addresses processes of human mobility in times of crisis from different scientific perspectives and at a global and trans regional level. The first part sets out to discuss established paradigms in migration studies and politics in order to suggest new approaches to analyse mobility, migration and to challenge boundary making approaches. The second part presents empirical cases from Latin America and Spain to demonstrate how migrants challenge, negotiate and mobilize citizenship and belonging. The third part deals with the question how belonging is produced and identity is constructed at a transnational level. New information and communication technologies, human mobility but also the mobility of concepts, ideas and values, foster these collectivization processes across and within physical and symbolic borders.

Challenging Norms Heidi Hein-Kircher, Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Denisa Neštáková, 2025-06-01 Access to reproductive healthcare including abortions and family planning services remains a deeply polarizing issue within contemporary Eastern Europe. Originally a question reserved for couples, this topic has since been elevated to the public realm through the emergence of modern nation states. Challenging Norms offers a geographically wide ranging re-examination of family planning in twentieth century Eastern Europe, interrogating the relationship between social attitudes to family planning and the forces of social, economic and political modernization. In doing so this volume highlights how these changes provide invaluable insights into ever evolving societal norms and values.

Racism in Contemporary Germany

Ivan Kalmar, Nitzan Shoshan, 2022-06-23 This book presents a critical and empirically informed examination of Islamophobia and related issues of racism and nationalism in Germany today with particular attention to the East West distinction The authors representing several disciplines such as anthropology sociology and media and literary studies situate the topic in the global and German context of the 2015 16 migration crisis and its aftermath and of the ongoing transformations seen in the postsocialist regions of the European Union Since the 2015 16 refugee crisis illiberal leaders and parties within Europe have instrumentalized Islamophobia in an attempt to dislodge the traditional political elites Strikingly such illiberal movements have been most successful in the formerly socialist areas of the EU This is mirrored within Germany itself where political formations with an Islamophobic agenda remain more popular in the East than in the West This volume examines the reasons for this difference including not only the ideological heritage of Soviet dominated socialism but also the effects of western interventions in the formerly socialist areas in and beyond Germany since the end of the Cold War Some Islamophobic and other hateful tendencies were in fact introduced from and continue to prosper also in the West The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies The Statecraft of Consensus Democracies in a Turbulent World José Magone,2016-12-19 Drawing on the work of Arend Lijphart this book focuses on consensus democracies These democracies entail a complex set of democratic institutional and conventional arrangements and can be regarded as a product of path dependent development towards a national culture of compromise and bargaining Taking a multi dimensional and multi spatial approach this book examines the West central European consensus democracies of Austria Belgium Luxembourg Netherlands and Switzerland over the past 40 years Magone examines how these democracies have been transformed by Europeanization thrusts and global turbulence yet are able to maintain political stability It provides historical context including the different phases of transformation the golden period 1945 1979 disorganised capitalism 1979 1993 and re equilibration 1993 It includes chapters on political culture government parliament the rise of populism and political parties subnational government and the political economy and concludes deliberating on the relevance of consensus democracies experiences for the future of European and global governance Based on original research this book will be of strong interest to students and scholars of comparative politics European government West European politics the politics of small states in Europe and those with a particular interest in the politics of Austria Belgium the Netherlands Luxembourg and Switzerland Moralische Erneuerung Robert Bernsee,2017 Angaben zur beteiligten Person Bernsee Dr Robert Bernsee ist Akademischer Rat am Institut für Wirtschafts und Sozialgeschichte der Georg August Universität Göttingen Who's who of Emerging Leaders in America ,1993 Historische Zeitschrift,2015 Perspectives de Berlin Andreas Schoen,2015-10-21 Perspectives de Berlin Andreas Schoen,2015-09-22
