

Parts of a Persuasive Letter

Date

October 23, 2014

Greeting

Dear Jaime,

Introduction

I am writing to you because I think that you should try hula hooping. First of all, I think that you would like hula hooping because it is tricky. You like to practice doing the monkey bars so you get better at it. I think you would like to learn how to keep the hula hoop up for a long time. Also, I think you would like hula hooping because you can do it with friends. You can do it with Sam and me at recess.

Reasons

Conclusion

These are the reasons why I think you should hula hoop. Please come try it!

Closing

Your friend,
Christine

Teaching Essentials Regie Routman, 2008 What makes a teacher outstanding More than anything it's a way of being with kids in the classroom that lets them know they're smart and capable of high achievement When you combine this mind set with effective instruction teaching and learning are transformed In Teaching Essentials Regie Routman gives us as much of a blueprint for achieving this powerful responsive teaching as we're ever going to get Drawing on her extensive work with students who have excelled against great odds Regie shares the principles and practices that help all students and teachers reach their full potential Teaching Essentials shows teachers and principals how to build an efficient and joyful practice by setting lessons and activities in a meaningful context using an Optimal Learning Model to organize teaching and gradually release responsibility to students demonstrating reading writing and thinking for students so they have explicit models to follow articulating high expectations for every student including ELLs and struggling learners and ensuring that they meet them embedding assessment into all aspects of instruction and planning employing the reading writing connection to improve comprehension motivating writers by always writing for real audiences and purposes implementing a schoolwide coaching model for higher achievement and a more fulfilling collaboration with colleagues A companion website www regieroutman.com provides additional information including a downloadable easy to use study guide to promote professional conversations and video clips of Regie teaching so you can view and review the language and routines behind engaging responsive instruction and learning. The Teaching Essentials book and website are ideal for individual whole school and districtwide professional development.

In the Middle Nancie Atwell, 1987. Relates the experiences of an eighth grade teacher and her students who abandoned skill drill approaches and became collaborating readers and writers.

The Writing Report Card Arthur N. Applebee, Judith A. Langer, Ina V. S. Mullis, 1986. Based on the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) 1984 assessment of the writing achievement of American school children, this report presents national and demographic subgroup achievement results for students in grades four, eight, and eleven and discusses students' attitudes toward writing and instruction. The first chapter describes the tasks and evaluation criteria used in the study and highlights results of the study including the following:

1. although many students appeared to know the basic elements of analytic writing, such writing was difficult for students in all grades;
2. while most students could express their points of view in persuasive writing, many had difficulty providing evidence for those viewpoints;
3. students had less difficulty with tasks requiring short responses based on personal experience;
4. students found it moderately difficult to write well developed stories;
5. home environment is related to writing achievement;
6. students who indicated writing three or more reports and essays during a 6 week period had higher achievement levels than students who reported not writing during that time period;
7. students' positive attitudes toward writing deteriorate steadily across the grades;
8. students reported that their teachers are more likely to mark mistakes than to show an interest in what they write or to make suggestions for the next paper; and
9. content area writing increases between grades four and eight and decreases again in senior high school.

The next four chapters provide specific achievement data by grade level for informative, persuasive, and imaginative writing and for writing performance among various demographic subgroups. The remaining three chapters focus on students' responses to questions concerning writing and writing instruction, specifically their values and attitudes toward writing, how they manage the writing process, and what they write and the help they receive.

HTH

Children's Writing Karin L. Dahl, Nancy Farnan, 1998. This book explores the findings and beliefs researchers and teachers have shared about classroom practices and children's writing processes, highlighting representative studies with a focus on classroom application. The book examines subjects in a comprehensive review of recent research. It looks at past findings and presents challenging questions for future research. The book aims to engage teachers in research inquiry and to expand collaborations between classroom instructors and university researchers. Following a foreword and an introduction, chapters in the book are titled:

1. Conceptions of the Writing Process
2. The Writing Processes of Children
3. New Directions for Writing Workshop Programs
4. Learning the Craft of Writing
5. Writing across Subject Areas
6. Technology and Writing
7. Research on Assessment in Writing
8. Thinking Back Looking Ahead

A list of references, a subject index, and an author index conclude the book.

Bachman,2006 This research based book has been designed to help teachers build a strong knowledge base firm foundations of practice and a range of skills to successfully teach in today s secondary schools This first edition book incorporates Coverage of Collaboration Between Schools and Communities in Chapter 10 emphasizes the role and importance of service learning parent involvement and community involvement INTASC Principles and Key Dispositions features are located at the beginning of every chapter Instructional Resources provided at the end of the book allow teachers the opportunity to extend their understanding of the material For inservice teachers primarily in the first or second year of teaching in a secondary school setting      Research on Writing Peter Mosenthal,Lynne Tamor,Sean A. Walmsley,1983      Writing Without Boundaries Suzette Youngs,Diane M. Barone,2007 Research and experience show that when teachers give children choice in what they write about students engagement in their writing increases So imagine what can happen when you offer them choices about what genres to write in and what kinds of voices to write from The possibilities are unlimited and the strength and depth of the connection that students make to a subject can be profound In Writing Without Boundaries you ll find out how to unlock this potential in all your students as they discover what it means to write with purpose Writing Without Boundaries gives you everything you need to get started teaching multigenre writing Suzette Youngs and Diane Barone demonstrate why it works providing the rationale the research and examples of completed student work Then they take you inside classrooms to show how they and other teachers implement multimodal papers and how these lessons in topic selection organization audience planning and presentation will forever change how primary and intermediate students approach writing You ll discover how the writing workshop model can help you coordinate the efforts of your whole class even while you support each student in selecting from more than 60 genres to communicate their interests Best of all Writing Without Boundaries includes classroom tested units of study that use multigenre writing to enhance and extend your curriculum across the disciplines These units give students the chance to explore content from several perspectives as they write and speak from the point of view of historical figures compose biographies of famous or personally meaningful figures investigate historical situations respond to literature With its emphasis on choice voice and audience Writing Without

Boundaries cultivates students familiarity with genres while also helping them understand how real world readers and writers communicate through genre and how a single topic can be seen and written about from many many perspectives Show students the power of combining genres Read Writing Without Boundaries and open them up to a new world of possibilities Ideas and Details M. Garrett Bauman,2005 Inside the Writing Portfolio Carol Brennan Jenkins,1996 Inside the Writing Portfolio addresses the primacy of teacher knowledge in the portfolio process It seeks to answer such questions as What do we need to know in order to assess the personal narratives stories and nonfiction pieces that children choose for their portfolios How do we mark their progress What do we need to know to assess the conventions of spelling punctuation and handwriting How do we assess children s self assessment insights and their goals for future learning Jenkins makes the case for the collaborative portfolio one that merges the selections reflections and goals of both the child and the teacher She takes the stance that if portfolio assessment is to stand as a viable alternative to standardized measures it is essential to capture the insights of both child and teacher in order to illuminate the full extent of a child s learning past present and future Jenkins walks us through the collaborative portfolio of third grader Shane and then follows his progress through grades four and five Research findings are presented in conjunction with Shane s writing record writing samples excerpts from his interviews and surveys and other materials Jenkins also analyzes additional work from younger and older children to illustrate the development of writing across a broad age range She completes the assessment picture with writing samples from home highlighting the expansive nature of literacy
