

The Olivet Discourse

*"when you see all these things, know that it is near-- at the doors!"
(Matthew 24:33)*

Note: Scripture used in this Bible Study is from the New King James Version.

Are there any prophetic signs that must take place prior to the rapture?

No, the rapture is imminent, it is the next major event on God's prophetic clock.

If the rapture is imminent, why then do we bother to study about the tribulation that takes place after the rapture?

We can see the stage being set for the tribulation which reinforces for all who have spiritual discernment how close we are to the Lord's return.

What do we know about to whom the book of Matthew was written?

The book of Matthew was written originally to the Jews so that they may come to believe that Jesus was the Messiah.

How should the intended audience of the Book of Matthew impact the way we study the Olivet Discourse?

We need to keep in mind that the Olivet Discourse is directed primarily to Jewish believers and thus we should keep in mind that the emphasis is on the time of Jacob's trouble which we know as the tribulation.

1. Matthew 24:1-2 - What did Jesus prophesy about the temple in Jerusalem?

1 Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Jesus prophesied that the temple would be destroyed: "nor one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Did this prophecy of the temple come to pass?

Yes, the armies of the Roman general Titus laid siege to Jerusalem in 70 A.D. The Romans burned the temple then destroyed it looking for gold that had melted between the stones in the fire.

2. Matthew 24:3 - What three questions did the disciples ask Jesus?

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

(1) When will the temple be destroyed?

(2) What will be the sign of Your coming?

(3) What will be the sign of the end of the age?

3. Matthew 24:3 - What assumption were the disciples making by the way they asked these questions?

The disciples asked these three questions together so they must have assumed that all three would happen at the same time.

4. Matthew 24:4-6 - Which questions did Jesus answer?

4 And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one deceives you.

5 "For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many.

6 "And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

Jesus addressed the times leading up to the end of the age which, we'll find, also correspond with Christ's return. He didn't specifically address when the temple would be destroyed but instead focused on the weightier matters of His coming and the end of the age.

Preterists believe all the prophecies in Matthew have been fulfilled. How can they believe that and what problems does this belief have?

Preterists believe that the events associated with destruction of the temple in 70 AD fulfilled the prophecies of Matthew 24. But to believe this you must spiritualize (apply an interpretive spiritual meaning to) the Bible since these prophecies were not literally fulfilled. The destruction of the temple was a type of the tribulation but it did not literally fulfill the prophecy since Jesus has not literally returned.

This is probably a good place to describe the three major views of the order of the major end-time events:

Amillennial – These believe the present age of Christ's rule in the church is the millennium spoken of in Revelation. They hold to one resurrection and judgment marking the end
