Heritage, Conflict, and Peace-Building Lucas Lixinski, Yujie Zhu, 2024-04-30 Heritage Conflict and Peace Building examines the possibilities arising from and challenges associated with transforming heritage from a casualty of conflict into an opportunity for peacebuilding. The contributors to this book, who hail from academia and practice, present case studies that shed light on the multifaceted factors and conditions influenced by diplomacy, nationalism, victimhood, and the roles of diverse institutional actors in fostering peace. They demonstrate the possibilities and pitfalls of the work heritage does for local communities, the nation state, and the international community when these different actors and their peace aspirations and agendas intersect. Looking at heritage and peace processes on all continents, the contributions in this volume amount to a compelling analytical account of how the discourses of heritage and peace connect, overlap, and diverge. They also emphasise that our shared aspiration for peace should not be taken for granted in a heritage context and that it is incumbent upon heritage scholars and practitioners to be more intentional about the work they wish to do to promote peace. Heritage Conflict and Peace Building will be of interest to scholars and practitioners working in heritage studies, transitional justice, museum studies, international relations, education, history, and law.

CSR and Sustainability Michael Hopkins, 2022-04-26 CSR and Sustainability promotes the need for social responsibility and sustainability and highlights their link with the big issues of society. It shows how science and positive thinking by humankind can prevent oft-vouched disasters due to human rights violation, global warming, growing income inequality, relative poverty, racism, gender discrimination, and continuing absolute poverty.

Drug Safety in Developing Countries Yaser Mohammed Al-Worafi, 2020-06-03 Drug Safety in Developing Countries: Achievements and Challenges provides comprehensive information on drug safety issues in developing countries. Drug safety practice in developing countries varies substantially from country to country. This can lead to a rise in adverse reactions, and a lack of reporting can exasperate the situation and lead to negative medical outcomes. This book documents the history and development of drug safety systems, pharmacovigilance centers, and activities in developing countries, describing their current situation and achievements of drug safety practice. Further using extensive case studies, the book addresses the challenges of drug safety in developing countries. Provides a single resource for educators, professionals, researchers, policymakers, organizations, and other readers with comprehensive information and a guide on drug safety-related issues. Describes current achievements of drug safety practice in developing countries. Addresses the challenges of drug safety in developing countries. Provides recommendations including practical ways to implement strategies and overcome challenges surrounding drug safety.

The Christian Science Monitor Index, 1990 The Political Economy of Television Sports Rights T. Evens, P. Iosifidis, P. Smith, 2013-08-27 Sport on television is big business, but it is about more than just commerce. Using a range of national case studies from Europe and beyond, this book analyses the political, economic, social, and regulatory issues raised in relation to the buying and selling of television sports rights.
