Merry Wiesner-Hanks, 2025-10-01 Examining women's agency in the past has taken on new urgency in the current moment of resurgent patriarchy Women's Marches and the global MeToo movement The essays in this collection consider women's agency in the Renaissance and early modern period an era that also saw both increasing patriarchal constraints and new forms of women's actions and activism They address a capacious set of questions about how women from their teenage years through older adulthood asserted agency through social practices speech acts legal disputes writing viewing and exchanging images travel and community building Despite family and social pressures the actions of girls and women could shape their lives and challenge male dominated institutions This volume includes thirteen essays by scholars from various disciplines
