Peace in the Post-Christian Era Thomas Merton,2004 Writing at the height of the Cold War Merton issued this passionate challenge to the idea that unthinkable violence can be squared with the Gospel of Christ Censors of Merton's order blocked publication of Peace in the Post Christian Era but 40 years later the message remains eerily topical

A Double-Edged Sword Brenda E. Novack,2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jeanne d'Arc Joan of

Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jeanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model's ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace
