Peacework Prayer Resistance Community:

Peacework Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2005 Henri Nouwen wrote this book twenty years ago as his personal response in a time of heightening Cold War tensions. Now in a new era of fear and violence his message becomes even more timely. Peacework offers a three fold path for Christians to embrace Jesus ethic of peacemaking. First peacemaking is more than a matter of carrying placards or opposing war. It must begin with a life of prayer a movement from the dwelling place of fear and hatred and into the house of God. Next Nouwen urges us to resist the powers of death not just armies and armaments but our everyday selfishness and bondage to destructive consumerism. Finally he shows us how to celebrate life and to build communities in which love, forgiveness and compassion bind us in solidarity with a wounded world. Book jacket

Everything Could Be a Prayer Kreg Yingst, 2024-10-15 Pray and meditate along with mystics and saints through this luminous collection of more than one hundred block prints by artist Kreg Yingst, curator of the beloved Instagram account psalmprayers. Teresa of Avila, Howard Thurman, Black Elk, Fannie Lou Hamer, Simon of Cyrene and Jarena Lee through radiant woodblock prints of these and other icons of the faith, artist Kreg Yingst ushers us into God's presence. In Everything Could Be a Prayer mystics who have communed with God and who worked for justice, mercy and liberation come alive. Yingst carves images onto blocks of wood or linoleum and then inks and prints them on paper. The resplendent portraits of mystics and justice seekers that result lead us into visio divina or sacred seeing. This form of ancient Christian prayer in which one meditates on a work of art moves us into sacred reflection and action. Each mystic embodies a virtue or practice such as mercy, vulnerability, forgiveness, worship and courage. From Brigid of Kildare we learn hospitality from Ida B. Wells' truth. From Josephine Bakhita we learn freedom from Takashi Nagai's trust. All point us toward Christ Pantocrator, ruler of all. Each print is paired with a scripture, a meditation on a life well lived and a prayer. Everything Could Be a Prayer complete with Lent and Advent reading guides is a rich resource for private prayer and communal reflection. Together with the saints we pray our way toward the resurrection. We pray along with Sandhu Sundar Singh: You alone do I desire and where you are there is heaven. And with Mary of Egypt: Blessed is God who cares for the salvation of all souls. With this great cloud of witnesses we find kinship with Christ. We see anew and we ask: What if everything could be a prayer?    The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski, 2012 Practicing hospitality is central to building a civil society not to mention living a Christian life. It can be enriching and joy filled but it can also be profoundly demanding and sometimes even dangerous. In The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski explores the ethical questions surrounding the practice of hospitality particularly hospitality that is informed by Christian theological commitments. While there is no algorithm that distinguishes between ethically legitimate and illegitimate boundaries the variety of circumstances in which hospitality is relevant and the nature of hospitality itself make advocating firm and fixed boundaries difficult. How much more so for Christians for whom the practice of hospitality should be a manifestation of agape a participation in God's eschatological welcome extended to all people through Jesus.

Christ Are limits to hospitality then merely a regrettable concession to our finite and fallen condition Wroblewski offers a rich theological reflection that will interest anyone who has a role in the practice of hospitality in community Whether such communities are families households churches educational institutions or nation states Encountering Henri Lazarus, Stephen,2026-04-22
