copy exception end users are at risk of being held liable for infringement when using streaming to access a website that contains infringing digital content even if they lack any knowledge about the content's infringing nature. Moreover, the grey areas in circumventing geo blocking have made end users hesitant to access websites through streaming because it is not clear whether technological protection measures apply to geo blocking. End users have a severe lack of knowledge about whether they can use circumvention methods such as virtual private networks to access streaming websites without being held liable for copyright infringement. Despite the intricacies between copyright and access to digital content, the recently implemented website blocking laws have emboldened copyright owners while suppressing end users' access to digital content. This is because the principles of proportionality and public interest have been given less attention when determining website blocking injunctions.

Podcasting Junior Tidal, 2021-05-06 Podcasting A Practical Guide guides librarians through the process of creating a podcast. It will help librarians digitally record their podcasts which can highlight library collections, connect with patrons, provide library instruction, and market library services across the Internet. Highlights include step-by-step guidance for how to record a podcast specifically tailored for libraries and librarians. Specifications on what kind of equipment, software, and hardware is necessary to record their own episodes. Pre-production techniques including script writing, storyboard creation, and how to find guests will be explored. Coverage of the post-production stage including audio editing, incorporating music and effects, and mixing episodes down for distribution will be explored. Resources for help with marketing the podcast using freely available and Creative Commons media to enhance episodes, privacy issues related to the medium, and making content accessible.
