Vasishth,2006-11-09 Hiring a new employee is one of the most important and time consuming tasks a manager or entrepreneur can undertake Firing an employee is an emotionally draining and difficult action no matter the length of service or level of responsibility Then of course you need to consider the legal implications of both actions Did you do it right and was it according to the law The best way not to fire people is to hire well in the first place The problem is that you find yourself under a great deal of pressure to fill a position You need a replacement in a hurry the work is piling up and there are so many candidates It is difficult to determine who is the right person for the job Even with the help of a human resource manager you still have the responsibility to interview and ultimately choose the new person Will he or she fit in You will be
