COLREGs is essential for anyone venturing onto the water. Leisure boaters as much as professional mariners need to know the rules and a firm understanding is required to pass many nautical exams. But with the COLREGs stretching to over 12 000 words this is no small task. This is where Paul Boissier's excellent book comes in. Paul knows the COLREGs backwards having used them extensively in his career with the Royal Navy from the bridges of submarines and warships which he has commanded with each giving a rather different perspective on other shipping. He also knows the other side well with his extensive cruising experience from his early years with his father to now sailing his own yacht. These experiences mean that he knows and understands the COLREGs from both sides and this gives him the ability to take you through the COLREGs from a mariners and sailors perspective. He brings the vital but dry document to life going through it not in order but by topics which are relevant to the mariner and sailor. Paul explains the intention of each rule and how it should be applied when at sea. He includes personal anecdotes not all favourable to him which make everything real and tells us how he remembers different aspects of the Regulations through mnemonics and other devices. Finally each chapter ends with a self test to reinforce what has been learnt. Other tests are also available online on the Fernhurst Books website. This new edition has been updated with the 2016 changes to the COLREGs. Whether you want to increase your confidence pass an exam require an on board reference or wish to improve your understanding of the nautical rules of the road this is the ideal book for you.

Self-instructor in Navigation & Nautical Astronomy for the Local Marine Board Examinations, & for Use at Sea ... William Henry Rosser,1885 Trans-Pacific Encounters Koichi Hagimoto,2016-04-26 While the origin of trans pacific contact between Asia and the New World can be traced as far back as the pre Columbian period it was not until the fifteenth century that communication across the Pacific became constant Despite this history the myriad encounters that constitute the basic contours of transpacific studies have often been overshadowed by the traditional emphasis on transatlantic studies In addition although socio political ties between Asia and Latin America have drawn attention among politicians and economists in recent years there continues to be a critical void in the studies of literary cultural and historical relations between the two regions This book challenges this double negligence and engages in a global discussion about the relationship between Asia and the Hispanic world which includes not only Spanish America but also the Philippines under the Spanish empire The essays presented in this volume explore the multidimensional nature of the trans pacific intersection through historical studies as well as literary and cultural criticism Topics investigated include for example the overlooked aspect of the Hispanic Philippines the Orientalized images of Latin American colonial art modernista and vanguardista writings about India and the experience of a Peruvian migrant worker in contemporary Japan The diverse perspectives that the authors offer create a dialogue with each other and together provide an interdisciplinary approach to the understanding of trans pacific encounters both past and present
