Emerging Business Trends and Management Practices Himanshu Rai, Mubashir Majid Baba, Mansi Babbar, 2024-02-20
This book explores the dramatic changes that have occurred in the business environment due in part to the phenomenal impact on societies and economies around the globe that resulted from the COVID 19 pandemic. It presents emerging trends, strategies, management practices, opportunities, and challenges faced by business leaders, managers, and administrators. The volume touches on myriad issues including the effects of lockdowns and restrictions, psychosocial effects of COVID 19 in the workplace, maintaining work-life balance, entrepreneurship during the pandemic, supply chain management, new communication, and management strategies, consumer behavior, Zoom fatigue, changes in the health insurance industry, and more. The topics and concepts addressed in the book provide insight for academicians, entrepreneurs, and those in business, marketing, and psychology.

Touristic World-Making and Fan Pilgrimage in Popular Culture Destinations Vassilios Ziakas, Christine Lundberg, Maria Lexhagen, 2024-02-13
This volume considers world making as the intersection of the fan pilgrimage experience and the responses of destinations. It critically examines the emerging field of popular culture tourism and its close connection with fan studies and placemaking. The chapters illustrate how different destinations capitalise on expressive cultural practices to attract fan tourists, the processes involved in their tourismification, and the outcomes for both visitors and local communities. The book establishes a common ground for the comprehensive and critical study of popular culture tourism development and fandom. It integrates theory and practice and provides evidence-based recommendations for popular culture destinations. It is a useful resource for researchers in tourism management, fandom, pop culture, and media studies, as well as for those working in the tourism industry.

Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials Juilee Decker, 2023-07-05
Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials examines how the modification, destruction, or absence of monuments and memorials can be viewed as performative acts that challenge prescribed embodied narratives in the public realm. Bringing together international multidisciplinary approaches, the chapters in this volume interrogate the ways in which memorial constructions disclose implicitly and explicitly the proxy battle for public memory and identity, particularly since 2015. Acknowledging the ways in which the past, which is given agency through monuments and memorials, intrudes into daily life, this volume offers perspectives from researchers that answer questions about the roles of monuments and memorials as persistent yet mutable works whose meanings are not fixed but are rather subject to processes of continual re-interpretation. By using monuments and memorials as lenses through which to view race, memory, and the legacies of war, power, and subjugation, this volume demonstrates how these works and their visible representations of entitlement possession control and authority can offer the opportunity to pose and answer questions about whose memory matters and what our symbols say about who we are and what we value Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials is essential reading for scholars and students studying cultural heritage history art history and public history It will be particularly useful to those with an interest in public monuments and memorials colonial and post colonial history memory studies and nationalism race and ethnic studies

Why We Can't Have Nice Things Minh-Ha T. Pham,2022-08-08 In 2016 social media users in Thailand called out the Paris based luxury fashion house Balenciaga for copying the popular Thai rainbow bag using Balenciaga's hashtags to circulate memes revealing the source of the bags design In Why We Can't Have Nice Things Minh Ha T Pham examines the way social media users monitor the fashion market for the appearance of knockoff fashion design theft and plagiarism Tracing the history of fashion antipiracy efforts back to the 1930s she foregrounds the work of policing that has been tacitly outsourced to social media Despite the social media concern for ethical fashion and consumption and the good intentions behind design policing Pham shows that it has ironically deepened forms of social and market inequality as it relies on and reinforces racist and colonial norms and ideas about what constitutes copying and what counts as creativity These struggles over ethical fashion and intellectual property Pham demonstrates constitute deeper struggles over the colonial legacies of cultural property in digital and global economies
