THE INDIAN LISTENER All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi, 1944-12-07 The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927. From 22 August 1937 onwards it was published by All India Radio New Delhi. In 1950 it was turned into a weekly journal. Later The Indian listener became Akashvani in January 5 1958. It was made a fortnightly again on July 1 1983. It used to serve the listener as a broadsheet of broadcasting and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes who writes them take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists. It also contains the information of major changes in the policy and service of the organisation.

Aruna Ravikumar, 2023-08-24 Reflect on media experiences with There I Was Media Musings where personal anecdotes and insights shed light on the ever evolving landscape of journalism and communication. Living through dramatic times as one of the first woman political journalists in the broadcast media in the undivided state of Andhra Pradesh when private television channels breezed through the regional landscape in the mid nineties Aruna Ravikumar witnessed momentous developments and historical events frozen in time. There I Was Media Musings is a compelling read about her foray into journalism which unwittingly began with her listening to interesting news discussions by fellow morning walkers when she accompanied her grandfather to Hyderabad's famous tank bund culminating in her moderating political debates in television studios. Political intrigues, destruction of cities, caste conflicts, faction politics and naxalite violence are part of the mosaic of experiences chronicled here with historical perspective and personal observation. Sketches of select celebrities from hundreds of interviews over decades will inspire awe and admiration in a world woefully lacking role models The book essays learnings from the media taking in its sweep crowning successes and glaring failures and a wide gamut of issues in between
