

The background of the entire cover is a painting of a desert landscape. It features rolling hills and mountains in shades of brown, tan, and blue, under a vast, light blue sky. The style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a soft, atmospheric quality. The title 'Oman' is written in a large, white, serif font, with the 'O' being particularly large and stylized, partially overlapping the landscape.

Oman Stories From A Modern Arab Country:

Oman Stig Pors Nielsen, 2014-08-15 The Sultanate of Oman occupies the southeastern part of the Arab Peninsula The country is beautiful and is full of unspoiled nature The sun shines almost every day The temperatures are pleasant during winter but it is often unbearably hot during summer The country is as large as Italy but sparsely populated It has oil gas and a variety of minerals The rapid development of Oman takes place with respect for its cultural heritage His Majesty Sultan Qaboos and the people of Oman are admired for having transformed Oman from a backwards non unified country into a modern homogenous state with a high standard of living dominated by tolerance and growing democracy It is blessed with a ruler His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said who has what may be called absolute power which he uses with great care and wisdom He is a true servant of his people Sultan Qaboos and Modern Oman, 1970-2020 Abdulrahman al-Salimi, Allen James Fromherz, 2022-04-27 One of the first timely accounts of both the modern Omani rebirth and its legacy over the entire reign of Sultan Qaboos 1970 2020 The book provides unique wide ranging interdisciplinary and international perspectives on modern Oman by specialists in a variety of fields from Oman Europe and North America Utilising a range of perspectives all chapters connect to the theme of rebirth of the connections between the past and the future pursued by Sultan Qaboos and his government in fields as diverse as health religion law economy heritage and diplomacy Not overlooking the many challenges faced during Sultan Qaboos reign and still faced by Oman the book engages various theories and perspectives about Oman s economic religious educational and cultural transformations under Qaboos d 2020 CE The short story in modern Arabic literature Hüseyin Yazıcı, 2004 Modern Poetry and Prose of Oman, 1970-2000 Barbara Michalak-Pikulska, 2002 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2012 Studies in Arabic and Islam Union européenne des arabisants et islamisants. Congress, Stefan Leder, 2002 The volume contains forty seven contributions dealing with Islamic thought and history Arabic literature and linguistics The variety of perspectives and approaches and the wide range of subject matters constitute a true mirror of European scholarship in Arabic and Islamic studies The authors who congregated for the 19th congress of the Union Européenne des Arabisants et Islamisants at Halle come from many European countries including Middle and Eastern Europe Philosophy and historiography Arabic inscriptions and belles lettres pre modern and modern history Islamic law and theology figure among the topics treated in amply documented studies Global Happiness Roman Adrian Cybriwsky, 2015-12-14 An authoritative comprehensive and highly accessible assessment of the happiest and least happy countries and cities in the world as well as of the happiest and least happy cities and states in the United States Which are the happiest countries in the world and which nations are the least contented Which cities in the world are considered the happiest and unhappiest Which American cities and states are at the top of the list and which ones rank poorly Presenting findings that are based on solid data and authoritative information this book offers a bold take on the geography of happiness around the world and presents results that are often unexpected. It enables readers to make informed cross cultural comparisons between countries and world cities and uniquely synthesizes global information in a way that allows us answer the important question: What makes us happy? A book like no other, Global Happiness: A Guide to the Most Contented and Discontented Places around the Globe tackles the complex equation of determining what places offer the happiest living experiences by considering quality of life prospects for the future, social relations, confidence in good government and many other factors that together constitute critical differences in living experience. The author, a professor of geography and urban studies as well as a world traveler, also takes into account the current events, politics and environmental situations of specific regions, states and cities and considers what residents of the cities and countries say about their own places to derive accurate and fair assessments.

The Arab World Ayad Al-Qazzaz, Ruth Afifi, Audrey Shabbas, 1978. The handbook contains three parts. Part I is an original survey of 24 elementary and secondary California textbooks in relation to the Arab world; part II has fourteen essays on subjects most frequently distorted or omitted in the textbooks surveyed; part III contains reprints of articles and items which teachers may reproduce for class use. In addition, the appendices provide sources of materials and information.

Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006. Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council (Vetenskapsrådet). Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999, it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally, emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect. Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history, we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history. Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one s own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic Orientalia Suecana Erik Gren,2004
