On Cultivating Liberty Reflections On Moral Ecology:

On Cultivating Liberty Michael Novak, 1999 On Cultivating Liberty brings together Novak's essays on moral ecology the ethos that must be cultivated and preserved if liberal democratic societies are to survive. Novak argues in defense of a free and virtuous society by examining the family welfare reform free markets self government and the American Founding and includes a series of remarkable intellectual studies on figures ranging from Jacques Maritain to St Thomas Aquinas. Along with a biographical essay and an introduction by Brian C Anderson On Cultivating Liberty is indispensable for anyone concerned about the future of democracy

God and Caesar George Pell, 2007-10 Drawing on a deep knowledge of history and human affairs the essays pinpoint the key issues facing Christians and non believers in determining the future of modern democratic life

Faithful Economics James W. Henderson, John Lee Pisciotta, 2005 In particular this volume demonstrates how Christianity shapes the worldview an economist brings to the task the questions an economist asks and the policies an economist advocates

Encounter Between Eastern Orthodoxy and Radical Orthodoxy Christoph Schneider, 2017-03-02 This book presents the first debate between the contemporary movement Radical Orthodoxy and Eastern Orthodox theologians. Leading international scholars offer new insights and reflections on a wide range of contemporary issues from a specifically theological and philosophical perspective. The ancient notion of divine Wisdom Sophia serves as a common point of reference in this encounter. Both Radical and Eastern Orthodoxy agree that the transfiguration of the world through the Word is at the very centre of the Christian faith. The book explores how this process of transformation can be envisaged with regard to epistemological ontological aesthetical ecclesiological and political questions. Contributors to this volume include Rowan Williams John Milbank Antoine Arjakovsky Michael Northcott Nicholas Loudovikos Andrew Louth and Catherine Pickstock

The Journal of Markets & Morality, 2005 Three in One Michael Novak, 2001 Throughout his many writings Michael Novak one of the leading Catholic social theorists of our times has urged us to adopt a tripartite system of democratic capitalism including a market economy a democratic polity and a moral cultural system that would nourish the values and virtues on which free societies depend. Three in One introduces the reader to Novak's portrait of democratic capitalism

Earth Report 2000 Ronald Bailey, 2000 Aimed at general interest readers this lively collection calmly and accurately assesses the ecological state of our planet 42 illustrations Champions of a Free Society Edward Wayne Younkins, 2008-01-01 This book is constructed around great thinkers of the past and present who have been influential in developing the philosophy of freedom. Its main purpose is to provide a survey and overview of the ideas of leading individual philosophers and economists of capitalism who have contributed to developing what might be called the classical liberal or libertarian worldview. Champions of a Free Society endeavors to provide a guide to political and economic thinking about the desirability and construction of a free society that is intelligible to the educated layperson. Edward Younkins provides an historical perspective of the pursuit of political and economic truth. The goal of this book is to present the development of ideas in language that permits generally educated readers to understand and appreciate their significance The book's chronological approach considers the thinkers and their ideas as they have developed over the course of time There is much unfulfilled illuminative potential to be found in the ideas of the past and Younkins successfully integrates the ideas of past and current thinkers into a logical contemporary worldview First Things, 1999 On Two Wings Michael Novak, 2010-01-01 The leaders of the American Revolution unlike the leaders of the French revolution did not set out to erase religion Indeed the very first act of the Continental Congress was to pray to Divine Providence in the face of the British bombardment of Boston In establishing a new model of self government the Founders believed that they were not only acting according to reason and common sense but also obeying a religious duty Benjamin Franklin proposed as their motto Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God In telling the story of the forgotten if not deliberately ignored role of faith in America's beginnings Michael Novak probes the innermost religious conviction of Washington Jefferson Madison and other of our Founders He shows that while the American eagle could not have taken flight without the empirical turn of mind embodied in John Locke's teaching on the ends of government and the consent of the governed the men who made America also believed that liberty depends as much on faith as on reason In the course of his illustrious career Michael Novak has written several prize winning books on theology and philosophy In On Two Wings he has created a profound mediation on American history and on human nature and destiny as well AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting, 1999 Birthright of Freedom Walton Cook, 2002 The Person and the Polis Craig Steven Titus, 2006 The contribution of Christian intelligence to western culture is widely recognized by those committed to the scholarly pursuit of truth concerned for the welfare of the nation and dedicated to the preservation and advancement of the permanent achievements of the West The dignity of the human person and the place of the human person in society the western polis have in large part been developed in the context of a Christian culture that continues to offer insights for the development of the human person This book addresses the place of faith and values in the secular state Renowned specialists in a wide range of disciplines philosophy jurisprudence psychology and theology discuss how the person and the polis are guided by ethics and religion and how liberty and transcendence interact in human aspirations The contributors are Hadley Arkes Romanus Cessario Robert P George Michael Novak Daniel N Robinson Kenneth Schmitz and Paul C Vitz The authors enter into a constructive conversation in an attempt to attain a deeper understanding of the human person through the integration of insights from practical wisdom and Christian faith The book advances the cause of the human person and society by synthesizing the genuine contributions of the human sciences with an openness to spiritual sources of understanding and practice Such intelligent dialogues between the sciences philosophy and religion about human dignity and beatitude moral responsibility and values law and custom community and institutions contribute potent means for nourishing the person and constructing the polis with the insights of reason strengthened by the surety of faith and Christian intelligence Craig Steven

Titus is research professor at the Institute for the Psychological Sciences as well as lecturer and researcher at the University of Fribourg Switzerland He is coeditor of Servais Pinckaers's The Pinckaers Reader and author of Resilience and the Virtue of Fortitude both published by CUA Press The Universal Hunger for Liberty Michael Novak,2004-09-21 One of the country's most important conservative intellectuals offers a vision for democratizing the Islamic third world not one based on a clash of civilizations but on a profound understanding of our common cause Jefferson's "Pursuit of Happiness" Douglas A. Ollivant,2002 Explores Thomas Jefferson's substitution of life liberty and pursuit of happiness for Lockean liberalism's life liberty and property in the Declaration of Independence and the Jeffersonian themes of the necessity of property laws contoured to support local communities and a concern for the effect of laws and morals on the happiness of a people
