Education Christine M. Olson, Edward A. Frongillo, David G. Schardt, 1983 Teaching Reading with Literature Gail E. Tompkins, Lea M. McGee, 1993 Complete with step by step action plans this book provides the theories techniques and tools pre service and in service teachers need to implement an effective literature based reading program The Art of Teaching Reading Lucy Calkins, 2001 Lucy Calkins has written a book with the goal of creating lifelong readers The Art of Teaching Reading offers educators a multifaceted reading program supported by word study guided reading book talks and other ongoing structures to produce impassioned readers Through years of research the author provides a myriad of ideas to help young readers discover their own joy of reading and love of books This text focuses on the big picture of reading instruction and explores the goals of reading programs It also provides information on comprehending and responding to text through synthesis critique writing and other effective strategies for understanding For teachers or future teachers or educators Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003 The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning diversity and instruction based assessment and helps translate principles into practice The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching The text with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated meaningful and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts It then goes one step further describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language In keeping with the text s theme illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text Write All about It!
