measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality America's Best Graduate Schools ,2011 The Evidence for Quality Ernest Grady Bogue,Robert L. Saunders,1992 What is the mission of the American college Is it reasonable to expect to measure quality in our collegiate system How do we adequately assess quality and still allow for diversity In The Evidence for Quality E Grady Bogue and Robert L Saunders answer these and other compelling questions as they take a comprehensive look at how quality is measured and how information on quality contributes to academic decision making The book offers a synthesis of practices and policies in collegiate quality assurance examining a range of contemporary approaches that include accreditation student feedback professional licensure college rankings and ratings and other measures of academic quality Bogue and Saunders offer a quality assurance model that links principles of good practice to a strategic unifying vision of quality They evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of each approach and show how each makes a contribution to academic decision making They draw on examples from numerous colleges and universities to demonstrate how various institutions developed strategic and effective quality assurance programs And they set forth guidelines for all educators who are dedicated to developing a superior program of quality assurance that is as unique as their individual campus
