Hollywood and the Law Paul McDonald, Emily Carman, Eric Hoyt, Philip Drake, 2019-07-25 Since the earliest days of cinema the law has influenced the conditions in which Hollywood films are made sold circulated or presented from the talent contracts that enable a film to go into production to the copyright laws that govern its distribution and the censorship laws that may block exhibition Equally Hollywood has left its own impression on the American legal system by lobbying to expand the duration of copyright providing a highly visible stage for contract disputes and representing the legal system on screen In this comprehensive collection international experts offer chapters on key topics including copyright trademark piracy antitrust censorship international exhibition contracts labour and tax Drawing on historical and contemporary case studies Hollywood and the Law provides readers with a wide range of perspectives on how legal frameworks shape the culture and commerce of popular film     Hollywood Stardom Paul McDonald, 2012-11-26 By integrating star studies and film industry studies Hollywood Stardom reveals the inextricable bonds between culture and commerce in contemporary notions of film stardom Integrates the traditions of star studies and industry studies to establish an original and innovative mode of analysis whereby the star image is replaced with the star brand Offers the first extensive analysis of stardom in the post studio era Combines genre narrative acting and discourse analysis with aspects of marketing theory and the economic analysis of the film market Draws on an extensive body of research data not previously deployed in film scholarship A wide range of star examples are explored including George Clooney Mel Gibson Tom Cruise Daniel Day Lewis Tom Hanks Will Smith and Julia Roberts     Medium Law Daithí Mac Síthigh, 2017-09-13 Why should anyone care about the medium of communication today especially when talking about media law In today's digital society many emphasise convergence and seek new regulatory approaches In Medium Law however the medium theory insights of Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and the Toronto School of Communication are drawn upon as part of an argument that differences between media and technological definitions continue to play a crucial role in the regulation of the media Indeed Mac Síthigh argues that the idea of converged cross platform medium neutral media regulation is unattainable in practice and potentially undesirable in substance This is demonstrated through the exploration of the regulation of a variety of platforms such as films games video on demand and premium rate telephone services Regulatory areas discussed include content regulation copyright tax relief for producers and developers new online services conflicts between regulatory systems and freedom of expression This timely and topical volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Law Policy Regulation Media Studies Communications History and Cultural Studies     Making Crime Television Anita Lam, 2013-10-15 This book employs actor network theory in order to examine how representations of crime are produced for contemporary prime time television dramas As a unique examination of the production of contemporary crime television dramas particularly their writing process Making Crime Television Producing Entertaining Representations of Crime for Television Broadcast examines not only the semiotic relations between ideas about crime but the material conditions under which those meanings are formulated Using ethnographic and interview data Anita Lam considers how textual representations of crime are assembled by various people including writers directors technical consultants and network executives technologies screenwriting software and whiteboards and texts newspaper articles and rival crime dramas The emerging analysis does not project but instead concretely examines what and how television writers and producers know about crime law and policing An adequate understanding of the representation of crime it is maintained cannot be limited to a content analysis that treats the representation as a final product Rather a television representation of crime must be seen as the result of a particular assemblage of logics people creative ideas commercial interests legal requirements and broadcasting networks A fascinating investigation into the relationship between television production crime and the law this book is an accessible and well researched resource for students and scholars of Law Media and Criminology A New Economic Theory of Public Support for the Arts Arnaldo Barone,2015-12-14 Should the arts receive public support Can the arts survive in a modern capitalist society Can economics shed light on the nature of public support and whether there is a rationale for public intervention This book undertakes to examine these questions as it explores the ways government and public resources are used to support the arts This book applies a Veblenian approach to understanding economic development to investigate public support for the arts in an effort to determine whether this approach can elucidate economic rationales for public support Divided into three parts the first provides basic information on public support for the arts by surveying support in the United States and Australia Part two includes a neoclassical overview of the topic while part three presents Veblen s ideas on economic development This book will be of interests to researchers concerned with cultural and institutional economics as well as political economy The British Media Industries Vincent Campbell,Paul Smith,2023-06-29 The British Media Industries offers an accessible introduction to how the media in Britain operates and the impact that recent political economic and technological developments have had on the nature of media industries today Split into two parts this book starts by exploring approaches to understanding contemporary media industries through political economic and technological terms The second part delves further into issues and practices relating to individual media industries including newspapers magazines film television music video games and social media The book adopts a political economy approach and is designed to engage students in an accessible way with key issues around the ownership and control of different sectors of the British media UK and EU government regulation of the media including content regulation and market economic regulation and the corporate strategies employed by leading media players such as the BBC Netflix Google and Apple This is an essential textbook for undergraduate students approaching British media industries for the first time and will also be relevant to students undertaking introductory courses in Media Management and Media Economics Digital Media Worlds Giuditta De Prato,Jean Paul Simon,2014-05-13 Digital Media Worlds tracks the evolution of the media sector on its way toward a digital world It focuses on core economic and management issues cost structures value network chain business models in industries such as book publishing broadcasting film music newspaper and video game     The Cinema of Stephen Chow Gary Bettinson,Vivian P.Y. Lee,2024-09-05 In the West Stephen Chow is renowned as the ground breaking director and star of global blockbusters such as Kung Fu Hustle 2004 and Shaolin Soccer 2001 Among Hong Kong audiences Chow is celebrated as the leading purveyor of local comedy popularising the so called mo lei tau gibberish brand of Cantonese vernacular humour and cultivating a style of madcap comedy that often masks a trenchant social commentary This volume approaches Chow from a diverse range of critical perspectives Each of the essays written by a host of renowned international scholars offers compelling new interpretations of familiar hits such as From Beijing with Love 1994 and Journey to the West 2013 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global movies provide overdue critical attention to Chow s filmmaking highlighting the aesthetic power economic significance and cultural impact of his films in both domestic and global markets
