Intensives and Down-Toners C. Stoffel,2015-06-26

Excerpt from Intensives and Down Toners A Study in English Adverbs Of intensives used to modify adjectives and adverbs it may in general be said that most of them are adverbs derived from adjectives expressing absolute qualities i e such as do not admit of variation as for example pure full very which in their strictest sense do not admit of degrees of comparison For this reason they were naturally pitched upon to express the notion of completeness of a quality so that as we shall see in the sequel pure blind which has afterwards changed both its form and its meaning purblind originally meant completely blind But most of those intensives that originally expressed completeness have in course of time come to mean merely a high degree of a quality and this is in exact accordance with one of the well established facts of word history About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
