Studies on the Origin of Divine and Resurrection Christology Andrew Ter Ern Loke, 2023-08-29 The origin and development of divine and resurrection Christologies are among the most important and controversial issues in the study of Christianity One reason why there is a lack of consensus among scholars even though they have access to the same historical material is that different scholars analyze the material differently Building upon his previous monographs The Origin of Divine Christology Cambridge University Press 2017 and Investigating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ Routledge 2020 Andrew Loke demonstrates the fallacies of reasoning in the analyses of the works of numerous scholars such as Bart

Ehrman Paula Fredriksen David Litwa Richard Carrier Raphael Lataster Daniel Kirk Matthew Larsen and Dale Allison Loke defends his proposal that a sizeable group of earliest Christians perceived that Jesus claimed and showed himself to be truly divine and resurrected and replies to objections to his previous works He contributes to the discussion on ancient Jewish monotheism exalted mediator figures comparison with Greco Roman literature Jesus mythicism Markan Christology the historical reliability of the New Testament as well as the use of philosophical and theological categories and the use of psychological studies on parallel apparitions cognitive dissonance mass hysteria pareidolia and memory for the study of early Christology The Origin of Divine Christology Andrew Ter Ern Loke, 2017-07-03 In recent years there has been considerable debate concerning the origin of divine Christology Nevertheless the proposed theories are beset with problems such as failing to address the evidence of widespread agreement among the earliest Christians concerning divine Christology and the issues related to whether Jesus intention was falsified This book offers a new contribution by addressing these issues using transdisciplinary tools It proposes that the earliest Christians regarded Jesus as divine because a sizeable group of them perceived that Jesus claimed and showed himself to be divine and thought that God vindicated this claim by raising Jesus from the dead It also provides a comprehensive critique of alternative proposals and synthesizes their strengths It defends the appropriateness and merits of utilizing philosophical distinctions e g between ontology and function and Trinitarian concepts for explaining early Christology and incorporates comparative religion by examining cases of deification in other contexts The Christology of St. Paul Sydney Nowell Rostron, 1912 The Divinity of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. John Bampton, M.A., Canon of Salisbury Henry Parry Liddon, 1871 The Pauline Christology of 1 Corinthians 8:6 Emad Atef Ezzat Hanna, 2023-07-27 This thesis aims to investigate the Christology presented in 1 Cor 8 6 as it is one of the most important christological texts in the New Testament and to do this against the backdrop of the modern scholarly discussion about New Testament Christology The present thesis argues that divine Christology in this text is the essential component for our understanding of the Pauline Christology and the earliest Christology of early Christians An Examination of Canon Liddon's Bampton Lectures on the Divinity of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ Charles Voysey, 1871 The Divinity of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ Henry Parry Liddon, 1888 The Spirit's Relation to the Risen Lord in Paul Mehrdad Fatehi, 2000 Mehrdad Fatehi studies Paul's letters and shows that the risen Lord is featured in the religious experiences of Paul and the Pauline believers as the present and active lord of the new covenant community These experiences seem to point beyond the notion of a divine agent alongside God to a redefinition of the very concept of God in a way that it would include Christ within itself This is confirmed by the way Paul and the Pauline communities believed themselves to have experienced the risen Lord through God's Spirit In Judaism in general as well as in Paul the Spirit was not regarded as an entity distinct or separable from God but as God himself in his presence and action in and among his people Yet we have clear evidence in Paul s letters that the risen Christ was experienced and conceived of as being present and active through the Spirit bestowing grace and gracious gifts infusing wisdom communicating his will regenerating and transforming his people and dwelling in and among them all through the Spirit in a way which is best understood after the analogy of God s presence and work through the Spirit in Judaism In other words Paul s the Spirit of Christ is best understood after the analogy of the Spirit of God Paul s application of the Spirit language to describe and interpret the Christians experiences of the risen Lord shows that Paul most probably presupposed a redefinition of monotheism in which Christ would be included within the Godhead
