Spectacular Narratives Geoff King, 2000-11-24 What is the appeal of the contemporary Hollywood blockbuster The sheer scale and impact of big special effects sequences is part of the attraction of films such as Independence Day Jurassic Park Titanic or Mission Impossible But they also offer other appeals including the dynamics of narrative Spectacular Narratives is the first serious book length treatment of the contemporary blockbuster including the digital effects based spectacle space fictions the action film war spectaculars the recent wave of disaster movies and films evoking new technologies such as virtual reality Consideration is also given to the impact of profitable spin offs such as film related theme park rides and computer games Geoff King argues against the view that an emphasis on the spectacular has led to an erosion of the importance of narrative in Hollywood Instead he suggests even the most spectacular and effects led contemporary blockbuster offers a blend of appeals mixing elements of spectacle and narrative Narrative is explored at the levels of both linear story telling and underlying thematic patterns a particular emphasis being placed on the persistence of elements of the myth ideology of the American frontier Close textual analysis is combined with consideration of the industrial and social contexts of contemporary Hollywood in a readable original and rewarding book on the cinema that dominates markets across the globe with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities It often refuses information on which to base judgments More discomfortingly cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film
