Reading Problems Margaret Ann Richek,2002 This book combines new and time tested approaches to reading problems by adding usable instructional strategies assessment tools research and an actual Informal Reading Inventory The book distills many different approaches to teaching students with reading problems presenting them in an approachable balanced and readable format Early chapters present general information on the reading process problem readers assessment and the principles of instruction Later chapters provide in depth information on strategies for teaching various parts of the literacy process and conclude with chapters detailing successful intervention programs and teaching in diverse and inclusive settings Reading Problems is extremely practical presenting many informal assessment tools and strategies Yet it also presents research on intervention programs multicultural strategies and extensive descriptions of tests The needs of adolescents and adults are also emphasized For educators of grades K 3 parents or anyone interested in literacy assessment and teaching strategies     Reading Problems Joyce Holt Jennings, JoAnne Schudt Caldwell, Janet W. Lerner, 2006 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali s pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty     Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs Edward A. Polloway, James R. Patton, Loretta Serna, 2005 This comprehensive non categorical special education methods book retains the key features that have made it a bestseller within the special education field for more than 20 years The authors give substantial coverage to generic methods and to all curricular content areas In the new edition increased emphasis is given to effective research based teaching strategies that will enable students with special needs to be successful in any classroom environment inclusive classrooms resource and self contained classrooms     The Essentials of Teaching Children to Read D. Ray Reutzel, Robert B. Cooter, 2005 Teaching Children to Read has always been well known for its comprehensive look at literacy instruction This streamlined edition of that text has been developed to provide readers a brief version that offers essential information about reading instruction based on research that aligns with No Child Left Behind directives The focus of this book is how to teach phonemic awareness phonics comprehension vocabulary fluency and ongoing classroom assessment Special features include A theory chapter to ground literacy background knowledge An infusion of the most current research available to inform practice and all five No Child Left Behind initiatives regarding phonemic awareness phonics comprehension vocabulary and fluency A newly organized assessment chapter presenting four purposes of assessment as identified by Reading First legislation including outcome assessment screening instruments diagnostic assessment tools and ongoing progress monitoring assessments     Reading and Writing
