When Kids Can't Read, what Teachers Can Do
G. Kylene Beers, 2003 For Kylene Beers, the question of what to do when kids can't read surfaced in 1979 when she met and began teaching a boy named George. When George's parents asked her to explain why he couldn't read and how she could help, Beers, a secondary certified English teacher with no background in reading, realized she had little to offer. That moment sent her on a twenty-three year search for answers to the question: How do we help middle and high schoolers who can't read? Now she shares what she has learned and shows teachers how to help struggling readers with comprehension, vocabulary, fluency, word recognition and motivation. Filled with student transcripts, detailed strategies, reproducible material and extensive booklists, Beers' guide to teaching reading both instructs and inspires.
