Lange,2019-11-15 YouTube hosts one billion visitors monthly and sees more than 400 hours of video uploaded every minute In her award winning book Thanks for Watching Patricia G Lange offers an anthropological perspective on this heavily mediated social environment by analyzing videos and the emotions that motivate sharing them She demonstrates how core concepts from anthropology participant observation reciprocity and community apply to sociality on YouTube Lange s book reconceptualizes and updates these concepts for video sharing cultures Lange draws on 152 interviews with YouTube participants at gatherings throughout the United States content analyses of more than 300 videos observations of interactions on and off the site and participant observation She documents how the introduction of monetization options impacted perceived opportunities for open sharing and creative exploration of personal and social messages Lange s book provides new insight into patterns of digital migration YouTube s influence on off site interactions and the emotional impact of losing control over images The book also debunks traditional myths about online interaction such as the supposed online offline binary the notion that anonymity always degrades public discourse and the popular characterization of online participants as over sharing narcissists YouTubers experiences illustrate fascinating hybrid forms of contemporary sociality that are neither purely mediated nor sufficient when conducted only in person Combining intensive ethnography analysis of video artifacts and Lange s personal vlogging experiences the book explores how YouTubers are creating a posthuman collective characterized by interaction support and controversy In analyzing the tensions between YouTubers idealistic goals of sociality and the site s need for monetization Thanks for Watching makes crucial contributions to cultural anthropology digital ethnography science and technology studies new media studies communication interaction design and posthumanism For its perceptive analysis of video blogging for self expression and sociality Thanks for Watching received the Franklyn S Haiman Award for Distinguished Scholarship in Freedom of Expression 2020 from the National Communication Association
