Representative Democracy in Flux Martin Belov, 2025-05-30 This book delves into the core of representative democracy in order to explain its main features institutional and imaginary and to show the reasons for its increasing dysfunctionality The collection explores the constitutional imaginaries of representation It outlines the main factors influencing the failures of representative democracy in an age of constitutional crisis and transition being gradually deconstructed via tendencies toward authoritarianism and technocracy Special attention is devoted to the impact of the politics of fear on representative democracy The analysis shows the main challenges stemming from national international transnational and supranational technocracy produced by the increased role of administration agencies and courts It exposes representative democracy as a composite phenomenon stretched between reason and emotions and between the constitutional past present and future The volume will be of interest to researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of constitutional law and politics comparative constitutional law administrative law human rights law and theory and philosophy of law

International Cooperation, Competition Authorities and Transnational Networks Mateusz Błachucki, 2023-11-30 This book presents a comprehensive study of the emergence functioning and evolution of international cooperation among competition authorities It presents an in depth look at network cooperation taking place within international organisations as well as networks based on binding international agreements and various informal networks among others It further identifies and analyses the forms of international cooperation among national competition authorities NCAs that are taking place within transnational competition networks The book classifies these forms of cooperation by grouping them into three stages soft developed and enhanced cooperation discussing each in detail It thus reflects the evolution of the international cooperation process and provides insights as to its possible development This work will be of interest to researchers academics and advanced students in the fields of competition law public administration international relations and those interested in international competition law and its contribution to global public governance

Central European Judges Under the European Influence Michal Bobek, 2015-11-19 The onset of the 2004 EU enlargement witnessed a number of predictions being made about the approaches capacity and ability of Central European judges who were soon to join the Union Optimistic voices foreshadowing the deep transformative power that Europe was bound to exercise with respect to the judicial mentality and practice in the new Member States were intertwined with gloomy pictures of post Communist limited formalism and mechanical jurisprudence that could not be reformed which were likely to undermine the very foundations of mutual trust and recognition the judicial system of the Union is built upon Ten years later this volume revisits these predictions and critically assesses the evolution of Central European judicial mentality institutions and constitutionality under the influence of the EU membership Comparatively evaluating the situation in a number of Central European Member States in their socio legal contexts notably Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Hungary Slovenia Bulgaria and Romania the volume offers unique insights into the process of non Europeanisation of national legal systems and cultures

Property Law in a Globalizing World Amnon Lehavi, 2019-01-17 Property Law in a Globalizing World identifies the paramount challenges that contemporary processes of globalization pose for the study and practice of property law It offers a straightforward analysis of legal scenarios implicating cross border property rights covering a broad range of resources from land goods and intangible financial assets to intellectual property data and digital assets This is the first scholarly book offering a detailed study of legal strategies that can decrease the gap between the domestic tenets of property law and the cross border nature of markets interpersonal networks and technology It shows how strategies of soft law conflict of laws approximation and supranationalism rely to various degrees on cross border property norms and institutions and studies the proprietary features of security interests and priorities to assets in insolvency in a global setting It also shows how digital technology such as blockchain can revolutionize the system of cross border property rights

Capacity Mechanisms in EU Energy Law Kaisa Huhta, 2019-07-17 Many states including European Union EU Member States subsidise energy producers in order to guarantee the uninterrupted availability of affordable electricity This book presents the first in depth examination of how these so called capacity mechanisms are addressed in EU law and how they affect the functioning of the EU energy markets Focusing on the existing legal framework as well as the new provisions of the Clean Energy for All Europeans package for capacity mechanisms the author addresses and analyses such aspects as the following the structure and functioning of the EU electricity markets EU's competence to address security of supply and Member States margin of discretion sector specific rules for security of supply legal conditions for subsidising generation adequacy capacity remuneration under the EU State aid regime free movement rules that address generation adequacy measures balancing different interests of EU energy law in the context of generation adequacy and the requirement of proportionality in State intervention to ensure generation adequacy The analysis draws on relevant sources of EU law treaties regulations and directives as well as the case law of the European Court of Justice and the General Court together with soft law instruments such as Commission guidelines Scholarly sources include not only legal literature but also work on energy policy energy engineering and energy economics As a detailed analysis of how capacity mechanisms address issues arising in the context of the energy transition and how the system of EU law applicable to capacity mechanisms should be interpreted to further the objectives of EU energy law the book will help policymakers and legislators in Member States to understand the changing legal setting for capacity mechanisms Lawyers academics and other professionals who deal with EU electricity markets in the EU and beyond are sure to welcome its detailed description and analysis

Public Governance in the Age of Globalization Karl-Heinz Ladeur, 2004 Globalization and its relationship to public governance is one of the key issues of our time In this book experts from a number of disciplines attempt to define what these two terms mean and perhaps even more importantly what they do not Taking as a starting point that globalization is neither the take over of political power by multi national stateless enterprises nor the chaotic unstructured process of dissolution of public order the contributors suggest that what is occurring is more institutionalized than many critics would admit It is argued that there are important transnational and supra national elements of a new public order which remain beyond the traditional borders of the state but not completely beyond the state as such Globalization as opposed to former developments in the internationalization of the economy is characterized by its transnational form i e it is based on exchange processes which to a greater or lesser degree bypass both the state and the traditional international character of the world economy of the past □□□□ ,2008 Resolutions and Decisions Adopted by the General Assembly During Its ... Session United Nations. General Assembly,1996 International Trade Reporter ,1996 Go Between ,2001 Yearbook of the United Nations United Nations,2010 Issue for 1946 47 includes a summary of the organization s activities from its inception to July 1 1947
