My City Links: September 2023 Issue My City Links,2023-09-01 Ask anyone who they look up to and give credit to for being the person that they have become chances are that a teacher will be on their list along with parents family members and close friends To mark Teacher s Day our Cover Story for this edition pays tribute to the role that teachers play in our lives Anybody who was around in the 80s would remember the pulsating beats and the psychedelic lights that were synonymous with a new form of music that held the world in thrall A special feature in City Tales revisits the birth of Disco music its impact on the Bollywood film industry and its eventual decline of sorts With the growing realisation that Artificial Intelligence AI is here to stay discussions these days often veer around to the influence this latest revolution in technology can have on different human endeavours In City Tech we take a look at some of the latest AI tools that can be used for a variety of functions As it happens advances in technology invariably come with their own unique challenges Preventing cybercrime and identifying the perpetrators is one such challenge for law enforcement agencies these days and official data on the nature and number of such incidents presents a grim picture Twin City police chief Soumendra Priyadarshi discusses the challenges in City Beat The section also looks at diseases like dengue that make an appearance during the monsoon season We speak with health and municipal officials to bring you a ground report In Screen Shots we catch up with the newest star on the block who is creating quite the buzz on the OTT circuit these days Life has not been the same for actor Prem Parija who had earlier worked as an assistant director for Bollywood films since he was signed up to play the lead role in the Commando series The section also features Odia film producer Sanjay Nayak and filmmaker NG Reddy During the course of a freewheeling chat they discuss the current state of the Ollywood film industry and what needs to be done to draw the audience back to the movie theatres This edition explores the interesting 200 year old Urdu poetry tradition of Mushaira in the city of Cuttack City Culture and the inspiring story of an 18 year old entrepreneur who is rewriting the rules of success City Biz

Embracing Indigenous Knowledge in Science and Medical Teaching Mariana G. Hewson,2014-09-17 The focus of the book is on different ways of knowing the western scientific way reductionist dualistic and materialist versus the indigenous approach holistic non dualistic and spiritual It discusses both science and medicine in the context of the challenges experienced in introducing science and medicine into Africa through imperialism colonization and globalization It looks at selected indigenous African paradigms the dominant western paradigms and the practitioners that represent these practices The book deals with questions concerning compatibility and incompatibility of different ways of knowing and delves into epistemological stances and the assumptions underlying these epistemologies The volume investigates whether and how a person can accommodate different epistemologies and the nature of such accommodations

How Communities Build Stronger Schools A. Dodd,J. Konzal,2016-03-05 If it takes a village to raise a child Anne Wescott Dodd and Jean L Konzal feel that it takes a community to make a school Not content with the idea of a school being contained within four walls and existing only for a few hours every day Dodd and Konzal know that a school which looks after the complete child exists far beyond its four walls and for the whole 24 hours in each day They present a radical democratic vision of the public school where everyone not just students teachers and parents plays a part in shaping our children and consequently our future
