

Mi Ultimo Adios: Rizal's Patriotic Farewell

2 pages | 405 words

Mi Ultimo Adios was the farewell poem of Rizal that originally had no title and was unsigned. This was believed as Rizal's last will because he wrote it on the night before he was executed. Also through this poem, Rizal was giving his last message to his countrymen. For him, offering his life was the best way he could show his love for the country. Even he was going to die, he was not resentful instead he challenged the each of the Filipinos to serve and love our country. However he was also hopeful that his death would serve as inspiration to everyone. He encouraged the youth to continue to dream and fulfill it. The poem 'My Last Farewell' was Jose Rizal's patriotic goodbyes, first to his country, his family and above all to his Heavenly Father. To his country he said, 'With gladness do I give you my life.' He tried to comfort his parents and dear ones with these lines: 'I'll go where there are no slaves, tyrants or hangmen; where faith does not kill and where God alone does reign.' The last line of the poem says: 'To die is to rest.'

Marketing Tourist Destinations in Emerging Economies Ishmael Mensah, Kandappan Balasubramanian, Mohd Raziff Jamaluddin, Gina Alcoriza, Vanessa Gaffar, S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh, 2021-11-27 While tourism is a key economic generator for many countries, emerging economies are confronted with additional challenges that those well-established destinations in North America, Australia, and Europe normally don't have to contend with. The potential for terrorism, political unrest, natural disasters, accidents, and not to mention epidemics have the potential to derail tourism in emerging economies. To mitigate these risks, emerging destinations need well-coordinated management and marketing strategies. However, most texts on tourism destination marketing reflect destinations in more advanced countries. This book acknowledges the fact that emerging tourist destinations have unique characteristics and challenges which have implications for destination marketing. Highlighting the marketing challenges, best practices, and strategies relevant to emerging economies, this book covers core topics such as image creation and branding, destination marketing during crises and pandemics, market segmentation, and the travel decision-making process, among others. Providing up-to-date knowledge on an otherwise under-explored topic, this collection is ideal reading for upper-level students, researchers, and policymakers.

The Routledge Companion to Literature and the Global South Alfred J. López, Ricardo Quintana-Vallejo, 2023-10-20 The Routledge Companion Literature and the Global South offers a comprehensive overview of the field at a key moment in its development, a snapshot of where Global South literary studies stands in its second decade. As the aftermath of a string of global cataclysms since the rise of neoliberal globalization has demonstrated, it is the poor, the disenfranchised, and the marginalized who consistently bear the brunt of the suffering. What defines the Global South is the recognition across the world that globalization's promised bounties have not materialized. It has failed as a global master narrative. Global South studies centers on three general areas: Globalization, its aftermath, failure, and how those on the economic bottom survive it. Organized into three parts, this volume consists of original essays by 25 contributors from around the world. Part I focuses on the origins and objects of Global South studies and how this field has come to define and historicize its organizing concept. Part II considers subsequent critical developments in Global South studies particularly those that embrace interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approaches Part III features case studies which highlight a range of applications and interventions The contributors critique the boundaries and definitions explored in the earlier parts and push settled literatures or methods into new analytical spaces This innovative collection is an invaluable resource for anyone studying and researching Global South studies and literature but also those interested in world literature contemporary literature postcolonialism decolonizing the curriculum critical race studies gender studies and politics Kinaadman ,1986 Soviet Studies of the Philippines Vladimir Afanas'evich Makarenko,1987
