Book Traces Andrew M. Stauffer, 2021-02-05 In most college and university libraries materials published before 1800 have been moved into special collections while the post 1923 books remain in general circulation But books published between these dates are vulnerable to deaccessioning as libraries increasingly reconfigure access to public domain texts via digital repositories such as Google Books Even libraries with strong commitments to their print collections are clearing out the duplicates assuming that circulating copies of any given nineteenth century edition are essentially identical to one another When you look closely however you see that they are not Many nineteenth century books were donated by alumni or their families decades ago and many of them bear traces left behind by the people who first owned and used them In Book Traces Andrew M Stauffer adopts what he calls guided serendipity as a tactic in pursuit of two goals first to read nineteenth century poetry through the clues and objects earlier readers left in their books and second to defend the value of keeping the physical volumes on the shelves Finding in such books of poetry the inscriptions annotations and insertions made by their original owners and using them as exemplary case studies Stauffer shows how the physical historical book enables a modern reader to encounter poetry through the eyes of someone for whom it was personal Future of Higher Education Gary A. Olson, John W. Presley, 2015-12-03 Written by leading education experts and by university presidents provosts and other leaders nationally recognized for their innovations the 22 original and provocative chapters in this new book comprise a wide ranging examination of the many challenges faced in fashioning the university of tomorrow Authors offer their research predictions concerns and advice on topics ranging from university finances student access changing technologies and the philosophical underpinnings of college education They address the multiple challenges facing higher education today offering ideas and solutions Contributors include Warren Arbogast Gretchen Bataille Lee Benson Rita Bornstein Sally Clausen Reed Way Dasenbrock John A Dossey Jean Dowdall James L Fisher Judy L Genshaft Henry A Giroux Ira Harkavy Michael Hoad Freeman A Hrabowski Stephen K Klasko James V Koch George Mehaffy J Hillis Miller Gary A Olson John W Presley John Puckett Michael Rao Charles B Reed Rollin C Richmond Roseann Runte Neil J Smelser Sheila M Stearns and Randy L Swing
