Global Revolutionary Aesthetics and Politics after Paris '68 Martin Munro, William J. Cloonan, Barry J. Faulk, Christian P. Weber, 2021-02-22 The year 2018 marked the fiftieth anniversary of May 68 a startling by now almost mythic event which combined seriousness courage humor and theatrics The contributions of this volume based on papers presented the conference Does la lutte continue The Global Afterlife of May 68 at Florida State

University in March 2019 explore the ramifications of that springtime protest in the contemporary world What has widely become known as the movement of 68 consisted in fact of many synchronous movements in different nations that promoted a great variety of political social and cultural agendas While it is impossible to write a global history of 68 this volume presents a kaleidoscope of different perceptions reflections and receptions of protest in France Italy and other nations that share in common a global utopian imaginary as expressed for example in the slogan All power to the imagination The contributions of this collection show that while all social struggles are political many lasting changes in individual mentalities and social structures originated from utopian ideas that were realized first in artistic productions and their aesthetic reception In this respect the various protests of May 68 continue Francophone Literature After the Postcolonial Age Farid

Laroussi,2024-12-15 Francophone Literature After the Postcolonial Age argues that Francophone literature extends beyond the postcolonial critical landmarks that helped define the field since the late 1980s Today Francophone literature maps out different paths that highlight its emancipation from both the Francophonie s cultural ascendancy and postcolonial theory s scholarly hegemony Farid Laroussi s argument is that three main forces have reshaped the French postcolonial in the twenty first century digital globalization intertextuality and ecocriticism With digital globalization Francophone literature finds new voices unfettered from former aesthetic print and distribution diktats Home and the exilic paradigm are redefined in the postcolonial subject s own terms Intertextuality reconnects with poetic dialogism sans the mimicry burden The intertextuality challenge showcases a new writers community across time and cultures The old anxiety around one s own poetic voice now provides valid responses to literary reconfigurations The book s study cases operate around three specific pairings Segalen Glissant Kafka Maghreb literature and Morrison Miano Lastly ecocriticism along the decolonial discourse comes to discuss the place of the postcolonial home as well as the responsibility category The author contends that the attention to the land cannot be separated from imaginaries collective and individual Francophone writers stand at the crossroads of activism and poetics moving further away from French metropolitan preoccupations Massive Open Online Courses and Higher

Education Rebecca Bennett,Mike Kent,2017-04-21 Since the first MOOC was launched at the University of Manitoba in 2008 this new form of the massification of higher education has been a rollercoaster ride for the university sector The New York Times famously declared 2012 to be the year of the MOOC However by 2014 the number of academic leaders who believed the model was unsustainable doubled to more than 50% While the MOOC hype has somewhat subsided the attitudes and anxieties of this peak time can still be seen influencing universities and their administrations This is the first volume that addresses Massive Open Online Courses from a post MOOC perspective We move beyond the initial hype and revolutionary promises of the peak MOOC period and take a sober look at what endures in an area that is still rapidly growing albeit without the headlines This book explores the future of the MOOC in higher education by examining what went right what went wrong and where to next for the massification of higher education and online learning and teaching The chapters in this
