George Washington Carver Biography

What is a biography? How could we add details and descriptive words?

George Washington Carver was an African American scientist who worked with plants. He was born in the year 1894 in Missouri. When George Washington Carver was young, many African American people could not go to school. But he worked hard and went to school. Then he started working for the Iowa and helped other people plant on their farms. He had them dig up crops with no pesticides and medicines. These plants were good for the soil. Then he started doing experiments with plants. He learned how to use plants to make products such as soap. During his life, George Washington Carver worked hard and educated many things that people still use.
