

OPENING REMARKS FUNERAL PROGRAM

1st) Good Evening everyone, Olivar family, relatives, friends, and peers of our beloved Phoebie Kate Olivar. As my opening remarks I want to acknowledge specially the family of Phoebie Kate Olivar. In this moment, think about the things you loved about phoebie, the funny moments you shared, and specially and how they impacted your life. To all friends, relatives this is the time na mag laan kayo ng oras to comfort them.

(Deep breath, be sincere and look up to them)...

We know that Phoebie is now at peace and in the wonderful hands of our God.

2nd) I'm so sorry for the loss you are going through, and I want to offer my sincere condolences. I hope that you find peace and comfort during this difficult time. My prayers are with you, and as my support I'm here and few leaders of JIL Fortune, especially I want to acknowledge also our beloved pastor Daniel Tagadtad to make this happened and thank you for having us in this memorable tribute to Phoebie Kate Olivar. The JIL family extends its heartfelt sympathies and condolences. (Deep breath)

3rd) Thessalonians 4:13 reads,

And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. (1 Thessalonians 4:13, NLT). In this context, Paul wrote this because the Thessalonians were worried that those who died before Christ returned would miss the resurrection. So he sought to give comfort by pointing to the certainty of the Christian hope. It's the hope we need to be reminded of this evening, as we grieve for our dearest and beloved Phoebie Kate Olivar and this moment she is now at peace and hope. In (Ecclesiastes 3:1, 4, ESV) for everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven—a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance. Our emotions, griefs, pain and sufferings are valid. In (Romans 12:15, ESV) if we want to weep or cry, give your emotions a respect to weep. If we want to rejoice and celebrate our victories we are FREE to embrace it.

4th) CLOSING/ CONCLUSION

Everyone here is lucky to have known Phoebie. I know Phoebie is with us today and smiling at the beautiful memories we've shared. On behalf of our dearest Phoebie, family and friends... let's take a moment and embrace each everyone.

(AS KEY BOARD PLAYS) ENDING SPIEL, MUSIC ARISE.

I'd like to sing a song that captures the essence of Phoebie, and let's all rise tayo ay aawit ng papuri at pasasalamat sa ating Diós and this is a reminder to us na hanggat merong awit tuloy and ating buhay at pag samba sa ating Diós.

Finding Your Niche & Maintaining Your Pastoral Poise Rev. RK Shorter,2020-12-21 In any new journey there is always the unknown factor and one can never be completely prepared for every situation There are however some shortcuts and advantages that are available if a person knows where to look One of the greatest places to find those precious gold nuggets and priceless tidbits of treasure is in the knowledge offered by an experienced friend or colleague This goes double for ministers and pastors that are involved in ministry in today s environment Every day there are many men and women answering God s call to ministry without a clear and established pathway that will direct them after they have stepped into their calling or into their churches They may undergo a formal and organized process but still may not have or be given the necessary tools to handle many of the situations that will be facing them in real life ministry Any pastor or minister should be willing to concede that finding their way by the seat of their pants was very uncomfortable and should be avoided by any means if possible The best advice comes from a trusted friend or colleague that is willing to share from their own experiences and include the good and the not so good There is no better classroom found that beats experienced and wise counsel This work is designed to offer some helpful insight to those brave men and women known as ministers and pastors This work may benefit any church or church member that is interested in better understanding the daily life of that individual they call their pastor This work is intended to positively impact the lives of those who will follow in ministry and help them to have a better perspective of what they may face as they fulfill the call    Wooster Alumni Bulletin ,1895    American Theosophical
