Introduction to Law for Paralegals Neal R. Bevans, 2004 Now there is an introductory text for paralegals that covers the theory as well as the practical aspects of everyday legal practice. INTRODUCTION TO LAW FOR PARALEGALS presents a succinct and revealing examination of what paralegals do in legal practice and how they do it. Instructors will appreciate the skillful presentation of this exciting new text. The first half of the book captures student attention by addressing practical applications such as legal research, trials, and appellate issues. The second half explores substantive legal issues ranging from personal injury and contracts to intellectual property. The clear, engaging writing highlights the positive aspects of the legal profession and communicates the author's enthusiasm. For the legal field, the text emphasizes practical skill acquisition in conjunction with substantive legal issues. The excellent end-of-chapter activities such as chapter summaries, review questions, discussion questions, web references, ethics discussions, suggestions for further reading, sample documents, and personality quizzes help students determine which area of the law is most appropriate for them. The hold student interest is the shorter length and appropriate level of material that make the text ideal for Associate level paralegal courses. The strong ancillary package includes an Instructor's Manual with sample syllabi for courses of different lengths, additional questions and practice exercises, and suggestions for designing online courses. A comprehensive test bank, also available on CD and PowerPoint slides, is included. INTRODUCTION TO LAW FOR PARALEGALS is uniquely reader friendly. The author defines key terms and phrases on the spot. Inset boxes explore important concepts. Special chapter features such as Skills You Need in the Real World and Issues at a Glance encapsulate important topics. Numerous examples, figures, tables, and hypotheticals reinforce understanding and appeal to different student learning styles.
