Handbook of Historical Studies in Education Tanya Fitzgerald, 2020-04-03 This book offers an in depth historiographical and comparative analysis of prominent theoretical and methodological debates in the field. Across each of the sections contributors will draw on specific case studies to illustrate the origins, debates and tensions in the field and overview new trends, directions and developments. Each section includes an introduction that provides an overview of the theme and the overall emphasis within the section. In addition, each section has a concluding chapter that offers a critical and comparative analysis of the national case studies presented. As a Handbook, the emphasis is on deeper consideration of key issues rather than a more superficial and broader sweep. The book offers researchers, postgraduate and higher degree students, as well as those teaching in this field, a definitive text that identifies and debates key historiographical and methodological issues. The intent is to encourage comparative historiographical perspectives of the nominated issues that overview the main theoretical and methodological debates and to propose new directions for the field.

Pedagogies of Educational Transitions Nadine Ballam, Bob Perry, Anders Garpelin, 2016-10-04 This book presents the latest research on educational transitions from a variety of research traditions and practical contexts set in Australia, New Zealand and several European countries. It examines critically questions and reshapes ideas and notions about children's transitions to school. The book is divided into five parts, the first two of which emphasise diversity and inclusion, with Part II focusing solely on the transition to school for children from Indigenous cultures. Part III explores the notion of continuity, which has been widely debated in terms of its role in the transition to school. Part IV explores the transition to school through the notion of crossing borders. The final section of this book, Part V, includes ideas about future directions for work in the area of educational transitions and presents the notion of transitions as a tool for change to policy research and practice. The book concludes with a critical synthesis of the research outlined throughout, including recommendations regarding future research related to educational transitions.

EBOOK: From Vocational to Higher Education: An International Perspective Gavin Moodie, 2008-10-16 This book discusses current issues in vocational and higher education and the relations between them. As well as concentrating on the well developed English speaking countries, the UK, US, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, the book also considers important developments in continental Europe, in particular, The Bologna process in higher education, The Copenhagen declaration on enhanced European co-operation in vocational education and training, The development of a European qualifications framework. From Vocational to Higher Education is key reading for university lecturers, those studying for higher degrees in higher education, managers and policy makers.

The Awkward Questions in Education Al Kingsley, 2025-04-30 Schools and systems face unprecedented challenges such as falling attendance, recruitment and retention issues, the validity of external monitoring of schools and the advent of artificial intelligence. In The Awkward Questions in Education, Al Kingsley tackles the tough, often avoided issues plaguing the sector today. Drawing on over 35 years of experience Kingsley explores the deep seated challenges that many in education encounter daily and opens critical conversations that we need to have if we're to enact real sustainable change Chapters address key questions such as the following Are we teaching students the right skills for the future Do we need more and different spaces to improve attendance and engagement Is the system truly inclusive How should we handle the integration of AI in classrooms What can be done to solve the ongoing teacher recruitment and retention crisis Featuring interviews with key stakeholders including school leaders policy makers teachers and governors this is a must read for school leaders multi academy trusts MATs teachers governors trustees and anyone passionate about the future of education **Compulsory Schooling in Australia**

Carol Reid,Katherine Watson,2016-01-26 In an examination of the impact of education policy on Australia's diverse student population this book asks if increasing the years of compulsory schooling can make the positive social impact its proponents claim The authors analysis reveals a policy disjuncture wrought by competing agendas of increased school leaving age and school choice and Australia through both practical and theoretical perspectives. The book develops an in depth understanding of risk society itself and guides the reader in applying this knowledge to the problem of how this impacts policy and practice in school education. Drawing on work by Ulrich Beck and Anthony Giddens Rodwell explores the development of risk society as a field of interest discussing its history, contemporary significance and links with neoliberalism, school education and both mainstream and social media. He also examines its impact on government policies and the practical implications of how this impacts the educational experiences of children around the globe today. A book for policy professionals, researchers, academics and postgraduate students interested in Education Studies, Theory and Policy and International and Comparative Education. Risk Society and School Educational Policy is the first international academic monograph published in the field.

Risk Society and School Educational Policy Grant Rodwell,2018-09-14 Risk Society and School Educational Policy explores the impact of risk society on policy in the US UK

Surviving the Future Gail Munde, Kenneth Marks, 2009-03-14 Chandos Publishing is a leading international publisher of books in the following areas. Researching Early Childhood Education for Sustainability Sue Elliott, Eva Ärlemalm-Hagsér, Julie Davis, 2020-04-08 This book captures the now burgeoning research field of early childhood education for sustainability ECEfS and comprises insights from an ever widening and diverse pool of researchers who are promoting, engaging and explaining the latest ECEfS research in the light of local, national and United Nations global policy directives. With the increasing urgency of global climate disruptions, resource depletions and biodiversity losses alongside greater human dislocation, the international scope of research and theory in this book provides a comprehensive guide to the role of sustainability in early childhood education at a time when it is needed more than ever. Elliott, Ärlemalm-Hagsér and Davis have brought together a collection of studies that offer new insights and approaches to ECEfS which challenge dominant narratives surrounding early childhood education and sustainability including topics such as how diverse worldviews and cultures challenge perceptions of sustainability, how bold national early education policies and urgent shifts in teacher education are imperative for driving transformative practices and how ECEfS curriculum and pedagogy can be incorporated successfully into early years settings. This book will both inspire researchers and more deeply enable early years educators to practise sustainability with children and so will be of great interest to scholars, lecturers and researchers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students across the increasingly intersecting fields of sustainability and early childhood education. School Funding Mary Atkinson, 2005 The methods of funding schools have been an issue of debate in England since the introduction of local management of schools in the early 1990s. Since then delegation of funding to schools has increased. More recently changes to the system of school funding have fuelled the debate in England about how schools should be financed. This report interrogates the literature for alternative models of educational funding from other countries as well as examining the literature for their strengths and weaknesses. The report provides a review of existing models of school funding in European and OECD countries and the advantages and disadvantages of each model. The report covers financial source and flow, division of responsibilities, allocation of funding to schools. The report also includes nine country illustrations which provide examples of the models identified throughout the report Recommendations arising from the research suggest that there may be much to be learned from examination of other countries funding models Back cover

Perspectives in Web Course Management Bruce Leslie Mann,2000 Perspectives on Web Course Management is a brilliant text on the latest developments in Internet teaching Chapters include development tools present day efforts in Internet teaching at various institutions and theoretical models of current and future course management Contributors from Canada the United States and Australia focus specifically on managing courses through systems such as WebCT TopClass and Lotus LearningSpace

BMJ ,2006    The Rural Educator ,2013    Promising Practices in Supporting Success for Indigenous Students Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development,2017 Indigenous peoples are diverse within and across nations However the Indigenous peoples have experienced colonisation processes that have undermined Indigenous young people's access to their identity language and culture At the same time Indigenous children have not generally had access to the same quality of education that other children in their country have had access to These two forces in combination have undermined the educational opportunities and outcomes of successive generations of Indigenous children and young people at times with catastrophic effect The six Canadian provinces and territories that participated in this study along with New Zealand and Queensland Australia are actively seeking to better meet the educational needs and aspirations of Indigenous students and their families The report seeks to identify promising strategies policies programmes and practices that support improved learning outcomes for Indigenous students and to build an empirical evidence base on Indigenous students in education The study investigates four areas in Indigenous education well being participation engagement and achievement in education These outcomes are interconnected and mutually reinforcing and each is essential for the success of every student
